The Staff of the Montanan Proudly Presents Reflections of 1967-68

Our University is People with Unique Reflections
on Their Mind and Body:

“Encouragement
both Premeditated and Spontaneous is Essential for Growth and Development”

“Montana State promotes Vigorous exercise — in mass or singular — for growing, expanding bodies”

“the human cry of victory overshadows even the loudest toll of the bell”

“our mascot noble
our hero proud
our symbol strong”

U.S.S.
MONTANA
1908

“time to remember a soft whisper
a gentle glance
and the forest stood still”

“a crystalline morning
crisp, clear, stunning inviting winter fun”

“a quiet elegance —
an echo of nature’s own”

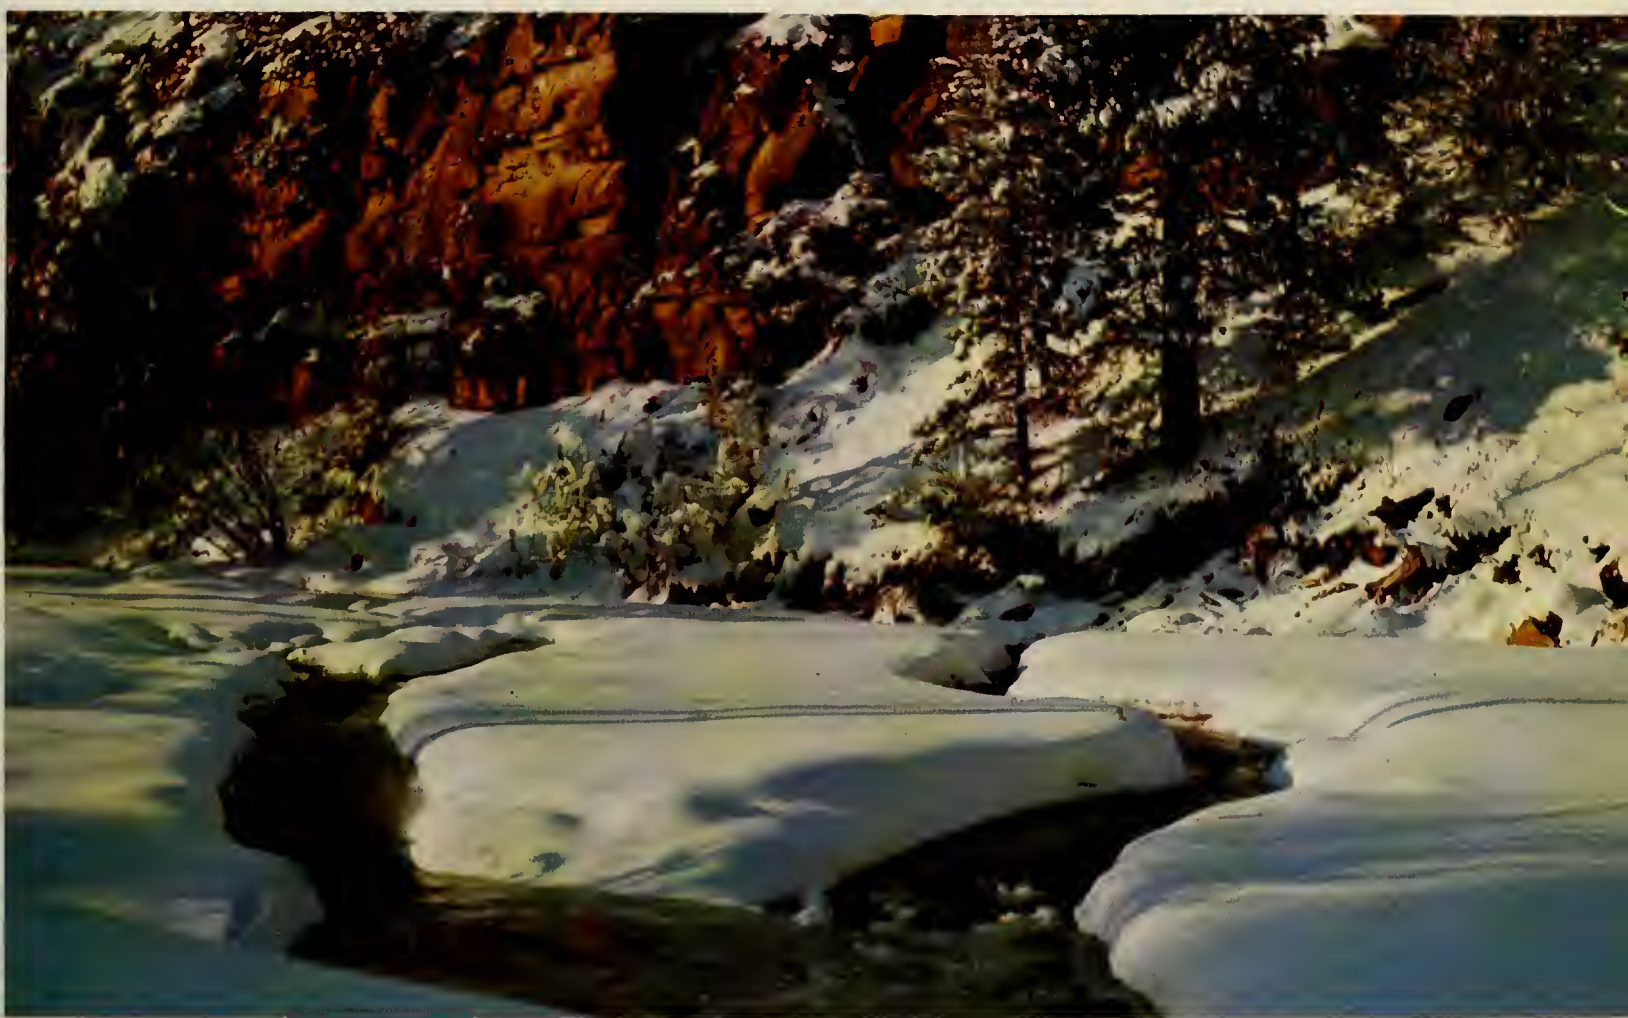

“day closes,
but Learning continues,
and the Mind is enlarged”

“the shadow of your smile remains...”

“the stream flows
though camouflaged with ice and snow
a continuum — like education”

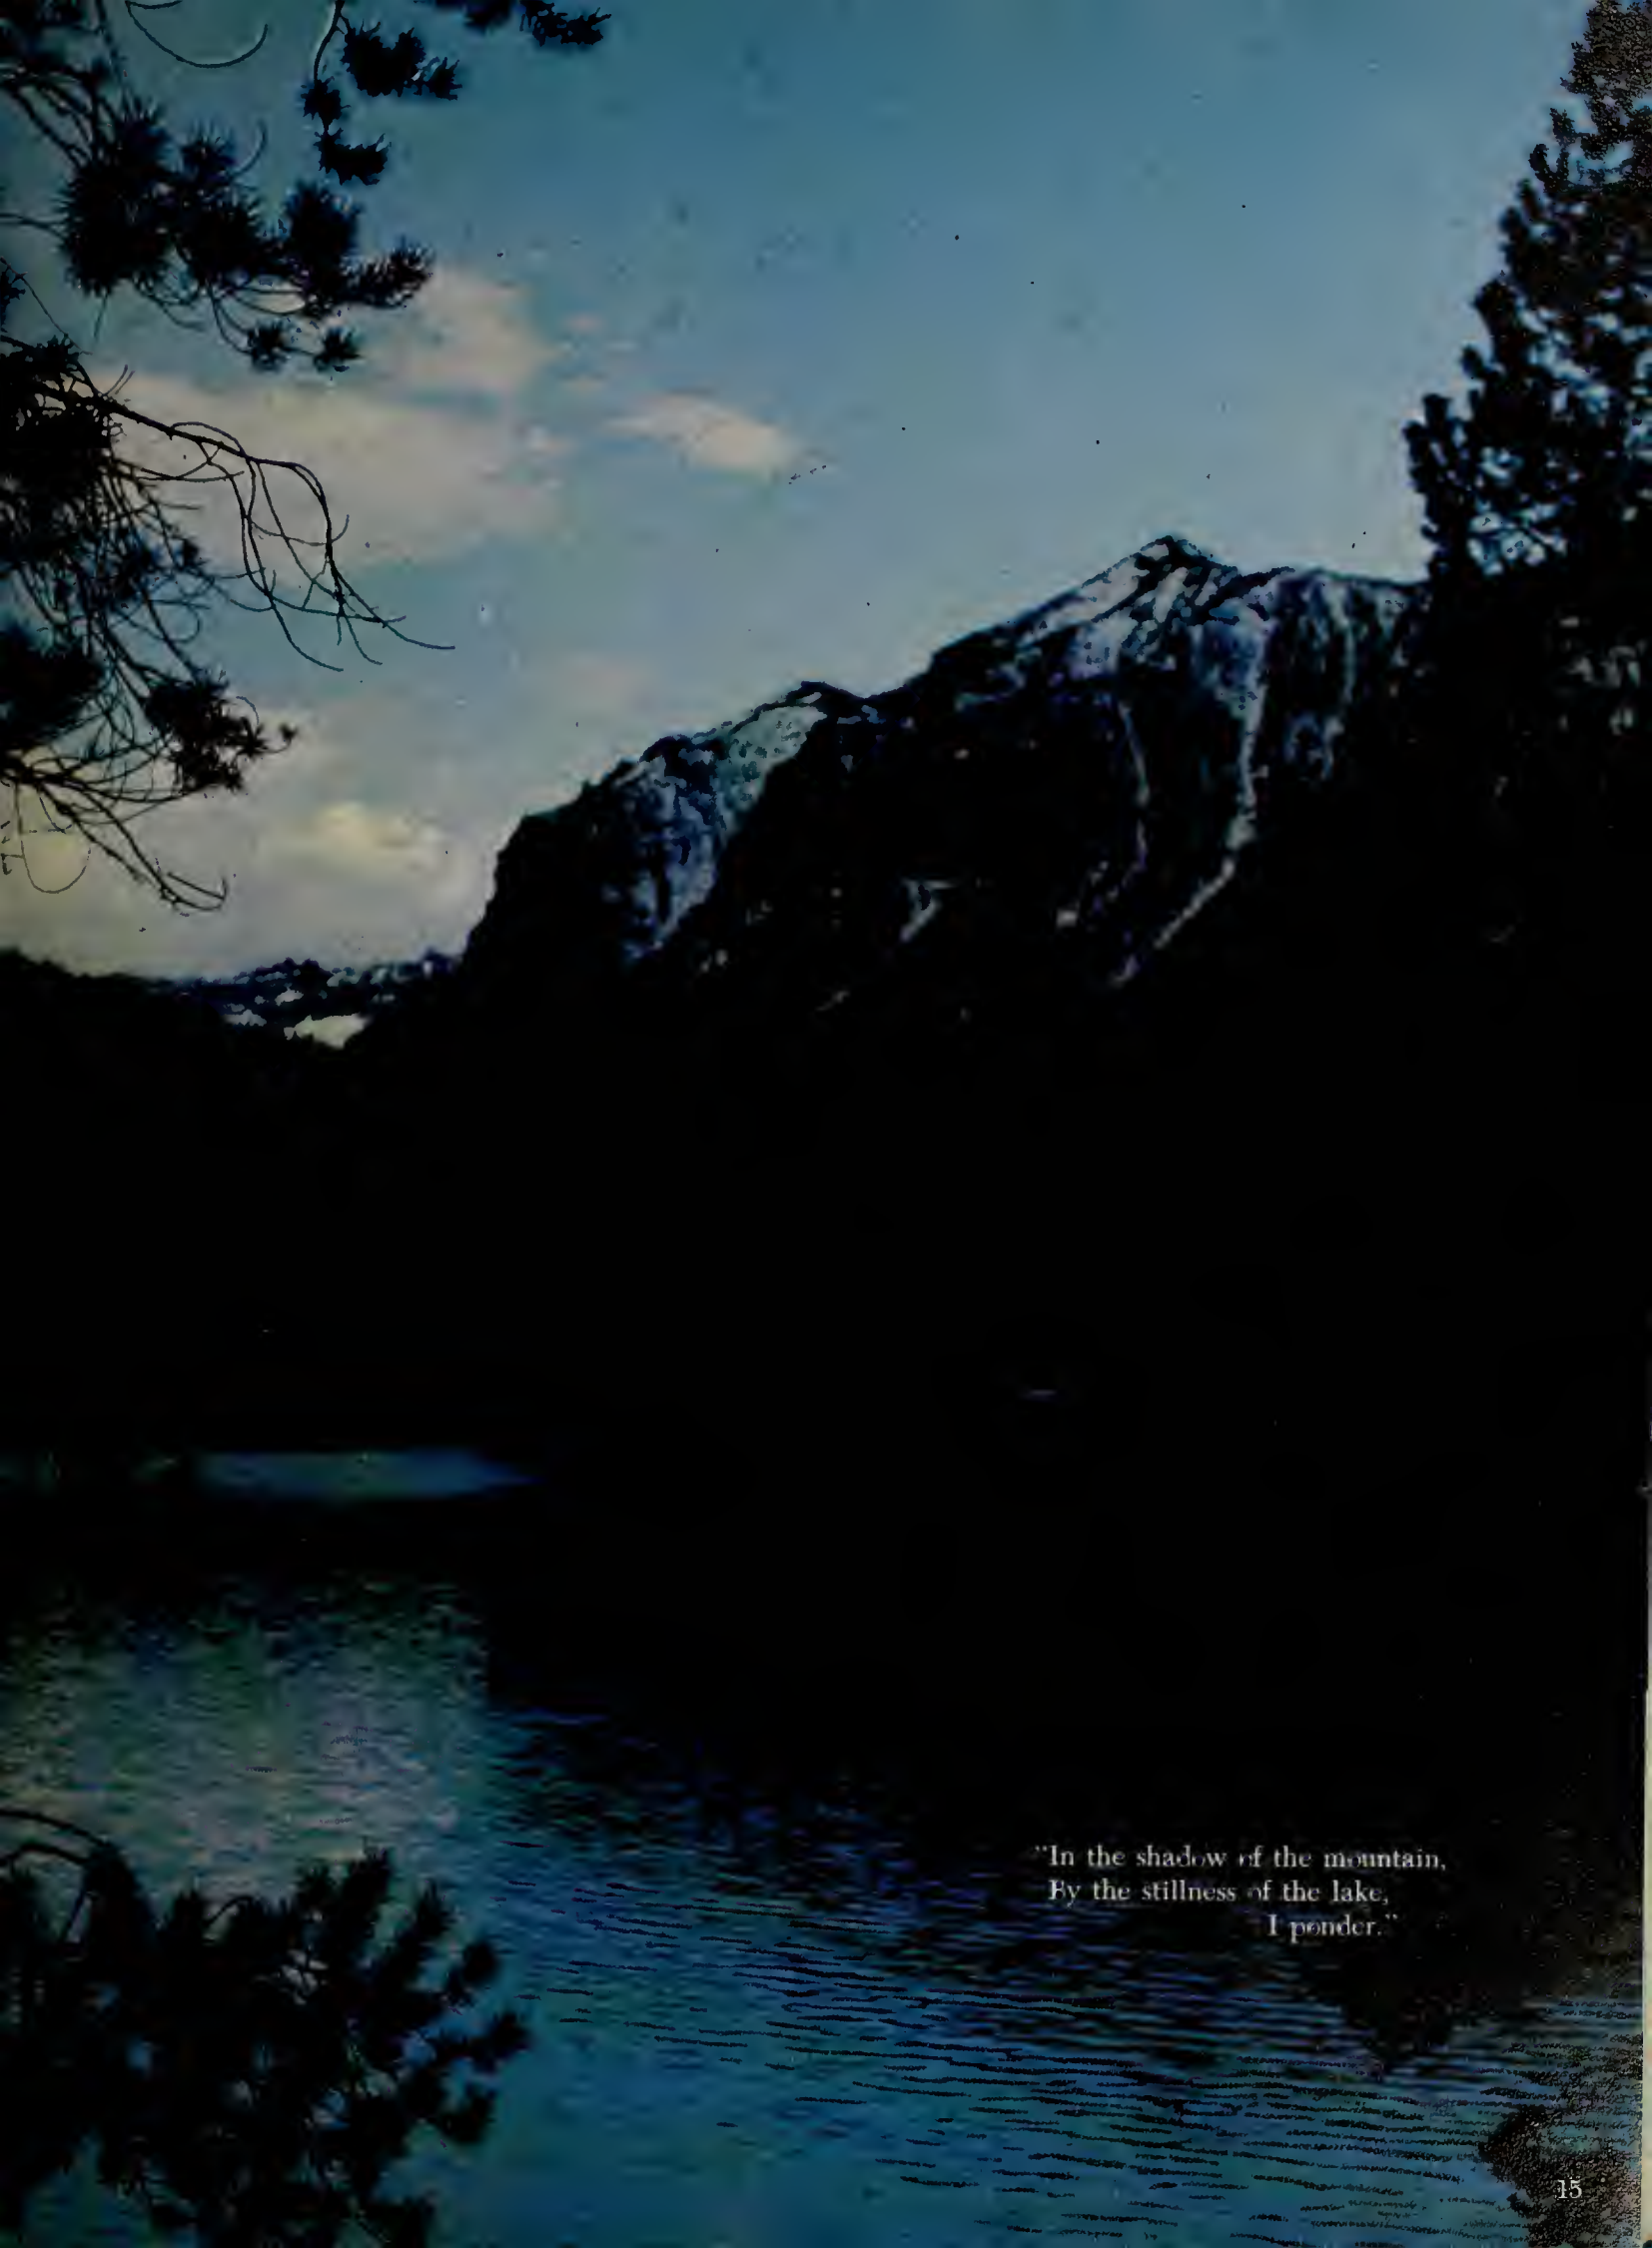

“our campus trees
reflect the vivid colors of Christmas”

“Montana State builds men;
men who enjoy and appreciate nature —
not detest and fight it”

“Through these doors
we pass
some to research
some to learn
some to gaze
some to talk
some to laugh
all to profit”

"In the shadow of the mountain,
By the stillness of the lake,
I ponder."

Student Senate

Student Senate is the governing body for the Associated Students of Montana State University (ASMSU). The membership is composed of the various commissioners, the four class presidents, and the ASMSU President and Vice President. These members are chosen in an all-campus, Spring quarter election. Observing the upper limit of their $105,000.00 budget, the Student Senate supported a vast number of activities and programs.

Of special significance was the financial and advisory support they gave to make the KATS Radio Station a reality. Another committee began investigating the possibility of constructing an effective instructor evaluation program. Student Senate financially backed a variety of programs—from livestock judging teams to dramatics; concerts to intramural sports; publications to forensics. And it all began with the rap of a gavel.

Senate Boards and Committees

A large amount of the work that is done by the Student Senate is done by the numerous boards and committees associated with the Student Senate. Each commissioner has a board under his supervision and control. These usually have a membership of four to six students who are appointed to that position by the ASMSU President. In addition to these boards there are several standing committees, such as the elections committee which supervises the student body elections. The boards and committees do all of the preliminary work necessary to effect a new policy or to carry out an old one. From time to time new committees are created to assist the functioning of the student government. Such committees were the Radio Station Committee and the Academic Effectiveness Committee. Others were created to investigate new ways to solve old problems. Special programs were supported by the members of these groups. One such program was the hosting of the M.S.U. Advisory Council. It is composed of Montana residents who act as a liaison between the public and the University. Typical classroom activity was observed as the students took the council members to the students' classes. The Council witnessed a Senate meeting, heard special reports, and discussed a new tax proposal. Only through public understanding of the special problems of this school can more meaningful and adequate legislation be achieved.

Fall Quarter

Orientation

The Great Roundup of '67 began:

the preparation had begun months before — the planning, buying, and eventually the packing.

The day arrived,

And the exodus commenced.

From sundry towns and cities — the 1,818 came

Like strays that merged into seething droves, the herd of traffic swelled.

A sign of the times — traffic jams.

A way was found, a line entered, and unpacking completed.

Masses of students with a common question,

“Will my identity be lost?”

Half afraid to begin, but too late to back out.

A frosh's only friend in a tight situation.

Freshman reflections:

"I really couldn't believe it. Just when I thought that I was finished with the testing, I found out that I had three more hours to go. HELP!"

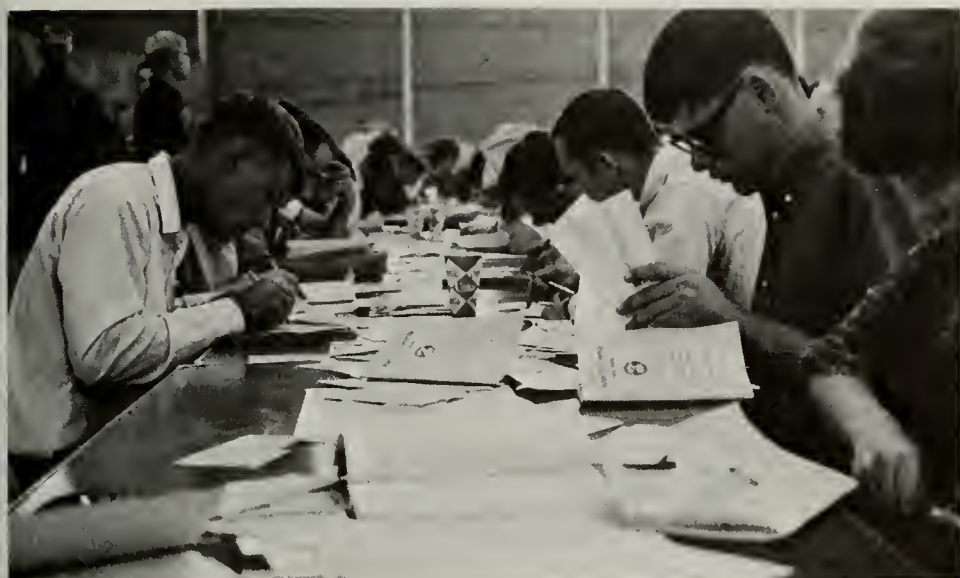

"After the first two tests I began to wonder if finals could be any worse."

"I wasn't even settled in before I began my tests. Consequently, it seemed like I could never get caught up during the entire week."

"There were many other facets of orientation week besides the testing portion. I vividly remember the medical check-up. I swear that the needle the nurse used on me was ten inches long. It wouldn't have taken much effort to put it clear through my arm."

"Those dances during freshman week were a nightmare for the frosh men. The upperclassmen just out-hustled us every single time. And those dumb green beanies didn't impress anyone. Not a single person. And if you tried to get away without one on — Stockadesville."

"After all of the testing, tours, shots, and pep talks, came the finale of the week — registration. Wow — you haven't lived until you go through a registration procedure. You definitely don't know what you are supposed to do and it's doubtful that anyone else does."

"I did wonderfully during registration; it only took me three hours to register. The lines at some stations were a bit long however."

"When I went out to buy my books for the quarter I found out why everyone says it's expensive to go to college. My supplies were a 'bargain' at $39. The students in art and architecture spent a phenomenal amount of money on their supplies. Many of them were permanent tools however."

"After a fun-filled weekend of painting the spurs and fangs, I began to grow apprehensive about the weeks to come."

The Brothers Four took our Homecoming festivities off to a fast start by exhibiting their talents. Everyone present during the performance reflected great anxiety and attention as illustrated by the girls pictured.

That same night, hours of labor were spent on float construction. As the sun rose and parade time drew closer, the work pace became 'super-frenzied'. The hours of preparation netted the Neuman Foundation a Sweepstakes award and First place awards to the Sig Ep's and the AOPi's in Greek competition.

Bobcats Down Weber

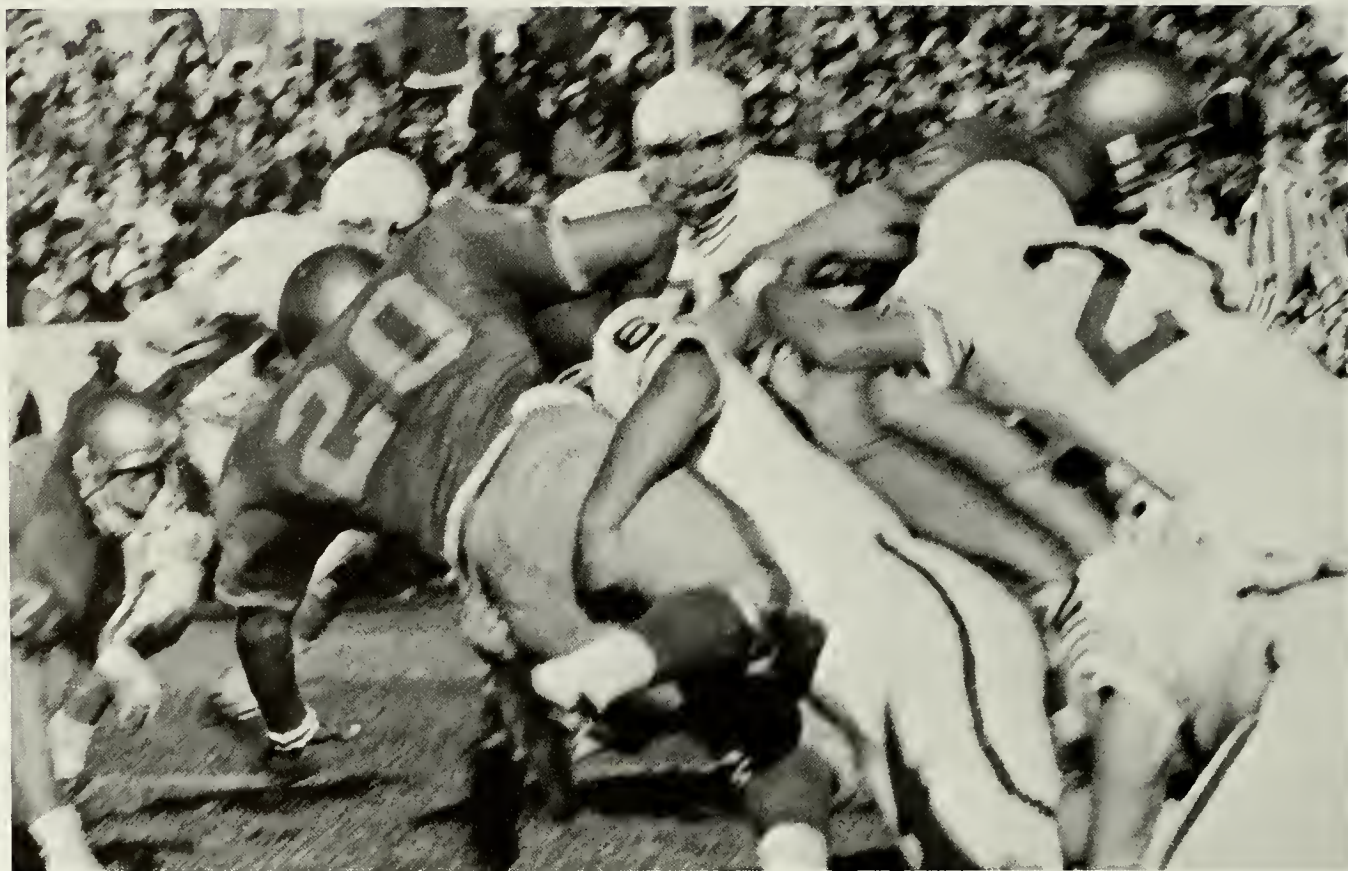

After the parade, the pace remained sustained as the students and fans looked forward to the forthcoming game. The student stands began to fill two hours before the game and were jammed at 45 minutes 'til game time. Tension and anxiety mounted and remained high as did many of the students! The final score (21-6) brought loud cheers from the 9500 athletic supporters. (For statistical coverage of the game see page 53.)

Football

During the 1967 season, the Bobcats won their second straight Big Sky Conference championship and their third in three seasons. They beat the Montana Grizzlies for the fifth straight year and wound up with a season record of seven wins and three losses.

"It's been a very satisfying season," Coach Jim Sweeney said. "One has only to look at our graduation losses to realize that the 1967 Bobcats did an outstanding job of rebuilding, particularly on defense where almost the entire unit was lost. And the offensive line had back only two starters from last year's Camelia Bow."

Playing perhaps the toughest college division schedule in the country, Montana State played No. 2 ranked North Dakota in the opener, rugged West Texas State in the second game and a host of other fine teams in October and November.

Indicative of the successful season is the fact that all attendance records in the books were broken. Total attendance for 10 games was 133,865, nearly double what it had ever been before. The largest crowd of course was 47,165 at new, $27 million San Diego Stadium. It was the largest crowd ever to see a game involving two college division teams.

Bobcats 6 No. Dak. St. 24

In the season opener, played in Great Falls, the Bobcats lost to a strong North Dakota State team — already nationally ranked. The big problem was trying to contain the strong Bison offense. The North Dakota halfbacks ran for a total of 315 yards while the Cats were held to 163. The Cats' only score came in the final quarter when Bob Wommack intercepted a Bison pass to set up the TD.

Gerald Pitzer shows the kind of offense that made for another Big Sky crown.

Bobcats 26 W. Texas St. 35

Happiness is a winning team and cool cheerleaders.

Jon McElroy and Earl Hanson stop a West Texas Buff — cold.

In a wild, high scoring game, the Buffaloes of West Texas State downed the Cats in Canyon, Texas. With scoring in every quarter, the Cats were down one point at the end of the first half. They came back in the second, recovered a Buff fumble and scored in the first six plays of the half. This wasn't quite enough as the Cats were 9 points behind at the final gun. The Bobcats' Don Hass was the game's leading ground gainer with 160 yards.

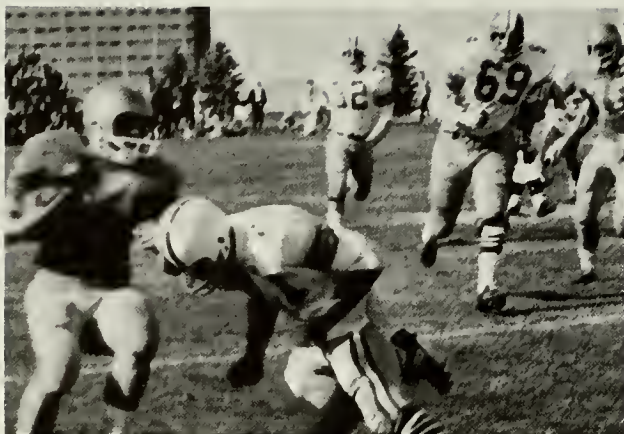

Bobcats 52 Portland 7

The Cats crushed Portland State in the first home game of the season. Led by Gary Popiel, the smallest man on the team, the Cats downed the Bulldogs by a score of 52-7. Although Popiel never scored a point, he set up the first three Bobcat scores.

Equal to the outstanding effort by the offense, the defense held Portland to a total of 4 yards rushing. After opening the season with two losses, the Bobcats showed indications of a successful season.

Suzie Fisher says go get em, so go get em.

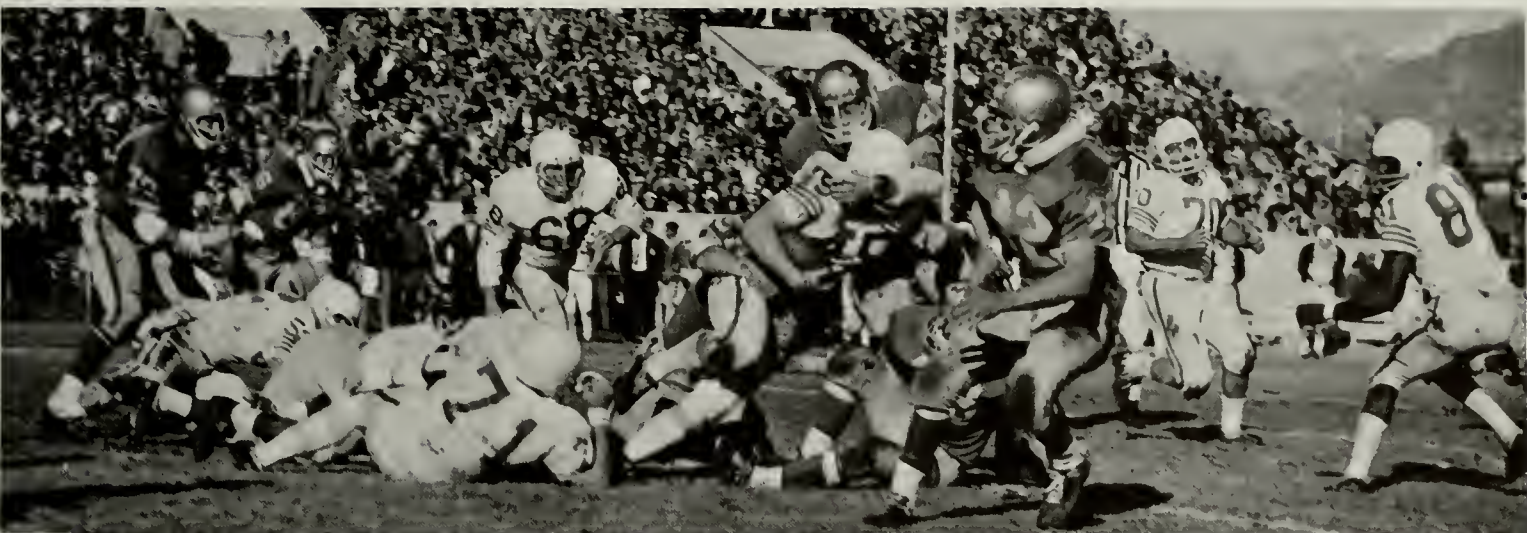

Bobcats 21 Fresno St. 20

Earl Hanson saved the day for the Bobcats when he knocked down a two point conversion try to give the Cats a 21-20 victory over the Fresno State Bulldogs. Fresno was down 21-6 going into the fourth quarter. With four minutes to go in the game, the Bulldogs had closed the margin to 21-14. In the final 2½ minutes, they recovered a Bobcat fumble and scored in the final minute to make it 21-20. Their gamble for the win rather than a tie proved to be their downfall.

There really is more organization on the field than there is on the sidelines.

Now that's defense.

Bobcats 41 Idaho 14

The only two Idaho scores came as a result of Bobcat fumbles as the Cats soundly trounced the Vandals by a score of 41-14. In a game riddled by mistakes, the Cats lost 6 fumbles, but the Vandals were unable to capitalize. The Bobcats took the lead in the opening minutes on an interception by Jerry Jimison and the outcome was never in doubt.

The Cats ruined another Homecoming as they handed the Bengals of Idaho State their fifth straight loss. Led by quarterback, Dennis Erickson who passed for one touchdown and ran for another, the Cats came out on top to the tune of 24-7. An illegal procedure penalty in the final minutes of play cost the fired-up Bobcats another score. This win was especially sweet for the Bobcats as they haven't won in Pocatello since 1954.

Homecoming may have been a great day for the alumni, but it was an even greater one for Don Hass. When it was announced that Hass had gained nearly 300 hundred yards in one game, the fans gave him a well deserved standing ovation. The "Iron Tumbleweed" ran for a total of 298 yards for an 8.8 average compared to Weber's big Lee White's 178 yards for a 4.6 average.

It was a great over-all team victory for the Cats. As the Weber coach put it, "There is no doubt — we were beaten by a better team."

The Cats scored a touchdown on a 61 yard drive their first time on offense and it looked like a bad day for the Sioux from North Dakota. Another TD and a fumble recovery in the Sioux end zone gave the Bobcats a 20-0 lead. The North Dakotans were anything but beaten as they took an interception in for their first score and by the end of the fourth quarter were only 4 points behind. With minutes remaining, they recovered a fumble on the Cat 14 yard line. A strong Bobcat defense held them on the five and forced the Sioux to give up the ball and all hopes of an upset.

Cheerqueen, Karen Popelka, had little trouble maintaining school spirit this year.

Ray Biggs, Earl Hanson, and Jon McElroy let a hapless Grizzly know that it'll take more than a "new look" to beat the Bobcats.

Bobcats 14 U of M 8

Any season is successful when the Bobcats beat the Grizzlies and this one was even more so. With the 14-8 win the Cats cinched their second straight Big Sky crown and finished their second season without a conference loss.

The big question in Montana — but not in Bozeman — was whether or not the "new look" Grizzlies could take the "old look" Bobcats. The Cats admit that it was close, but a couple of goal line stands late in the third quarter and early in the fourth made the difference and kept the mythical crown at MSU.

A highlight of the half time ceremony was Governor Babcock's presentation of the second annual Governor's trophy to former Bobcat basketball great, Tom Storm.

Bobcats 3 San Diego 14

The end of the Bobcats' seven game winning streak came at the hands of the nation's number one small college team, the San Diego State Aztecs. In spite of the loss, the Cats held the college division power to its lowest score of the season. The Cats' only score, a 27 yard field goal by Frank Kalfoss, came in the first half as did all the scoring. The Cats went on to hold the Aztecs scoreless in the second half.

Don Hass

The best-known football player in Montana State's history had another honor added to his long list of plaudits. Don Hass, the famed "Iron Tumbleweed" from Glendive, has been named to the Associated Press Little All-America football team for the second straight year. He was named offensive halfback. The odds of even making the team are small, since more than 700 small colleges field teams, but making it two years in a row is even more difficult.

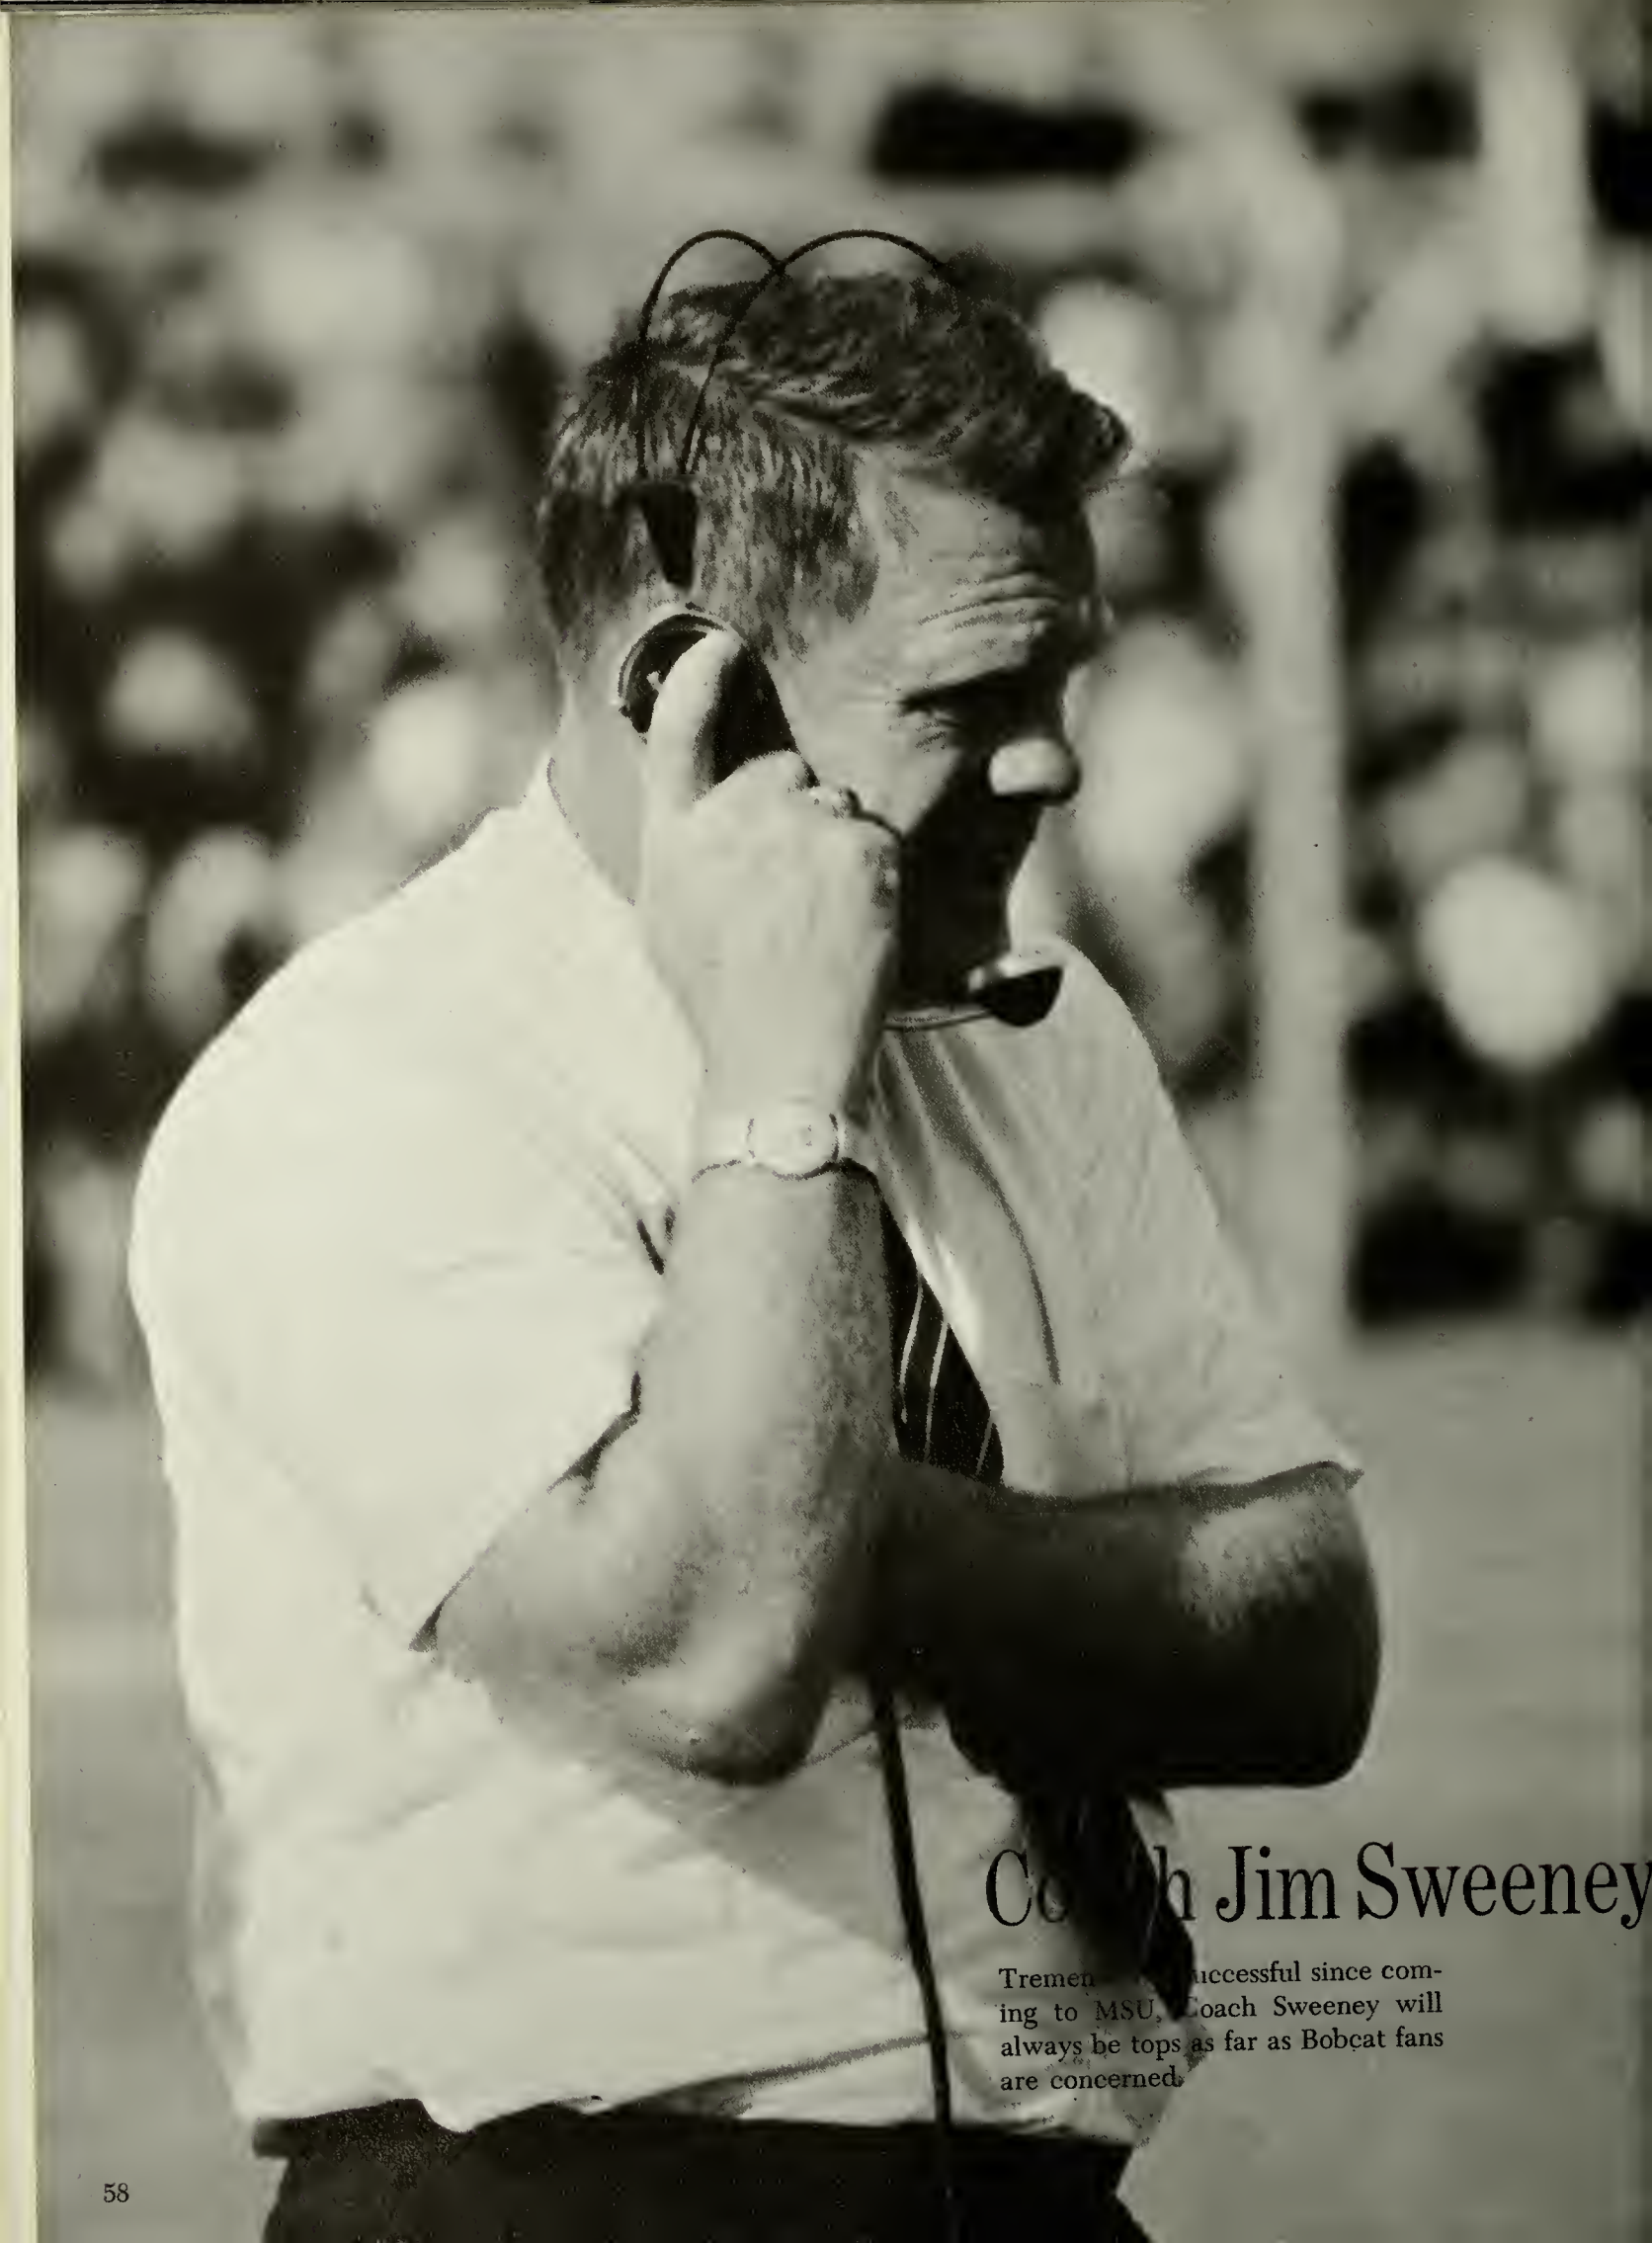

After receiving word of the AP selection, Hass said, "It's great news. I'm really happy about it. Frankly, I really didn't expect to make it this year."

The 196 pound senior received one of the highest football honors possible last week when he was named to the West squad for the annual East-West Shrine game December 30 at San Francisco.

Though Hass didn't have the total production this year (1245 yards to 1440 last year) he still came through in the clutch and set a single game record of 298 yards against Weber State. He also went over the 200 yard mark in an important 14-8 victory over the University of Montana.

In addition to his other honors, Hass has been a unanimous choice on every Big Sky all-star team announced during the last two years.

Coach Jim Sweeney

Tremendously successful since coming to MSU, Coach Sweeney will always be tops as far as Bobcat fans are concerned.

A Winter Fair booth, a Barn Dance, and a field trip were a few of the activities which kept the Ag Club on its toes as it worked to coordinate all the departmental clubs in the School of Agriculture. Highlighting the year's events was the Little International Livestock Show sponsored by the club. This is an annual attraction which brings with it all the bustle and excitement of larger livestock shows.

Ag Bus.

A visit to a Billings industry sparked interest for Ag business students this year. The club promoted a broader interaction and acquaintance with the business world through this trip and by hosting qualified speakers from many fields of Agriculture.

Ag Eng.

The Ag Eng. club strives to acquaint its members with the opportunities offered in their profession. During spring break, the club sponsors a field trip, and on alternate years a ten day trip is taken out of state to inspect projects of interest to Ag Eng. Making snow survey signs and spanner wrenches for SCS and contributing the iron name-plates to campus buildings are some of the service projects of Ag Eng.

Students majoring in Agronomy, soils, and horticulture find a common interest in Chaff and Dust. Annually they send delegates to the American Society of Agronomy National Convention, sponsor a student smoker, and make educational visits to agriculture experiment stations throughout the Northwest. This year the club is actively engaged in a project of growing certified wheat seed.

Block and Bridle

Educational programs at each meeting stimulate the interest of the animal science majors. The Block and Bridle Club affiliated nationally last spring, sponsored the "Little I" judging contest.

Row Four: Sharon Treweek, Cathy Lewis, Jeanette Schaeffer, Joe Erickson, John Bliss, Gary Flynn, John pman, Debbie McBrien, Pat McBrien, Donna Davis.

This is another one of the clubs that is open to anyone. The Hilltop Hoedowners share one common love — Square dancing. They meet regularly in the hayloft (hum . . .) and really seem to enjoy their gatherings. They have performed at halftime shows for several schools and have put on a number of exhibitions.

I always wondered what they did in that hayloft.

M.S.U.'s various religious organizations are coordinated through the effort of the Inter-religious Council. The council is host to several noted religious speakers during the year.

Silent reverence captures some.

Newman Foundation

This year marks the 50th anniversary of the Newman Group on the MSU campus. It was in 1917 that the first meetings were held. Today the Newman Foundation coordinates the activities of the more than 1300 Catholic students on campus. In 1965 the Newman Parish was established by Bishop Hunthausen and the Newman Foundation is the main parish organization.

NEWMAN FOUNDATION — Sitting: Craig Wentzel, President. Standing: Linda Bourdet, Corresponding Secretary; David Anderson, Vice-President; Mary McKay, Recording Secretary.

GEOLOGY CLUB — Row One: Robert McNeil, Don Youngbauer, keg; Earl Griffeth, President. Row Two: Joe Sebens, Gary Bergman, Gary Judkins, Richard Mackin, Pete Jasmin, Steve Schmack, Bob Schultz, Dr. Mc Mannis, Advisor. Row Three: Ed McCaskey, Dave Garry, Dave Mc Eldry, Allen J. Dow, Gordon Johnson, Gary Schneider, Mike Kaczmarek. Row Four: Sherm Sollid, Brien Swanson, John Bohlig.

This club was organized only this year, so therefore much of the formal meeting time of this club has been devoted to establishing a workable constitution. Field trips have ranged from keggars to highly technical explorations. The purpose of this club is to expose members to many areas of investigation in geology field.

It's amazing what a rock looks like after 3 six -packs.

Bowling Club

Each Wednesday night at 7:00 P.M. eight doubles teams compete for high scores. The top six men on these teams constitute the Varsity Men's Bowling Team which competes with other Montana colleges and universities.

Ski Club

During Founders Day weekend, the Ski Club journeyed to Sun Valley for several days of fun in the sun and snow. The club raffled skis fall quarter and a gift certificate winter quarter. It also sponsored ski movies and the winter carnival and gave impromptu parties.

"M" Club celebrated its 50th anniversary this fall. It promotes athletic activities on the campus and assists in the painting of the "M". A swim team is a new activity to be sponsored by this club.

This organization is composed of those men who are especially interested in the field of physical education. At their meetings, new approaches to the physical education systems are discussed.

True to their professional image, student nurses were busy visiting and entertaining at the Florence resthome and Hillcrest, assisting with a measles clinic and the campus blood drawing. Through participation in the above activities students were encouraged to take an active role in their future profession.

MSNA — Row One: Chichi Zimmerman, Nomin. Comm.; Sue Offerdal, Board of Directors; Patricia Valenciano, Nomin. Comm.; Jane Fagenstrom, Pres.; Penny Courtneage, Membership Chair.; Peggy Weitz, Vice-Pres. Row Two: Johanna Spits, Treas.; Wanda Martin, Rec. Sec.; Nadine Aoki, Nomin. Comm.; Mary K. Shevlin, Chair. of Policy; Jane Meyer, Board of Directors; Carol LaRue, Parliam.

Alpha Tau Delta

Alpha Tau Delta, a national, professional organization of nurses within a baccalaureate program, helps to foster ideals of fellowship, scholarship and leadership within the nursing profession. To gain and maintain membership in the Lambda Chapter of M.S.U., a 3.00 accumulative gpa is needed.

ASME activities include the sponsoring of guest speakers and movies, and a spring tour dealing with the field of mechanical engineering.

ASCE is a semi-professional organization holding a joint meeting with the Professional ASCE Chapter and participating in the Northwest Conference of Student Chapters. As all work and no play is dull, the club held a student paper contest, a banquet, and a picnic to round out their program.

Men's Coop

The Men's Coop, a non-Greek living group, offers board and room for men who are willing to work for the mutual benefit of one another. They compete in intra-mural sports and have an organized party each quarter. The Western Party during Winter quarter is a highlight of the academic year.

Honor House

Honor House, a select living group of scholastically inclined women, placed third in the independent float division of the Homecoming Parade.

AWS

AWS — Row One: Kay Barseness, Recording Secretary; Linda Livers, Jr.Sr. Banquet; Linda Johnson, Fund Raising; Nancy Weaver, Standards. Row Two: Vondene Zander, Women's Day Chairman; Shirley Fulker, President; Dean Paisley, Sunny Sando, Corresponding Secretary.

The governing body for all women students on campus, the Associated Women Students, operates through the several house councils, Standards Committee, and the AWS Council.

MRA

MRA — Officers: Tim Skinner, Treas.; Ed Tash, Pres.; Dan Picard, Sec.; Bill Taylor, V.P.

The Men's Residence Association is the voice of resident men to the administration. The MRA financially helped to support the University radio station and the MSU swim team. It also advised the women residents as they organized to form a WRA.

Resident Advisors

Resident advisors are upperclass women and serve as a floor advisor in the women's resident halls. This group provides an opportunity for the women residents to meet and discuss common problems.

Head Residents

HR — Row One: Jim Woodward, Glenn Brewer, Dave Hess, Lynn Maas, Warren Hood, Bob Mungas. Row Two: Rick McKnight, Norman LeFevre, Dean Hendrickson, Dan Bakken, Ron Torgerson, Roger Brewer, Jay Wilson, Bill Irish. Row Three: Roger Stewart, Tom Sage, Bill Huston, Rodney Pribyl, Rick Cole, Chuck Samuel, Michael Valentine, Richard Yates, Trevor Edwards, Jerry Strobel. Row Four: Gary Fulker, Joe Inman, Cy Kazemi, Don McCullough, Greg Smith, Deryk Ziegler, Cliff Hanson, Jim Ross, Bill Wallace, Tom Carter, Darryl Hess, Louis Archambeault, Bill Hyslop, Jim Symmonds, Jim Weaver.

The Head Residents are the male counterpart of the RA's. They too are chosen by the administration but supervise the male residents of the dorms. They willingly advise the students on any questions which may arise.

Timing is an indispensable ingredient to accurate broadcasting.

Radio Station

KATS, located at 590 megacycles on your dial, began broadcasting on October 2nd. Four months later, on January 28, it was joined by KGLT, an F-M station located at 90.1 kilocycles. The stations are housed in special, sound-proofed, rooms in the basement of the SUB. The facilities involved represent an investment of $38,000 in equipment and building renovation costs. The large dials, called "pots," regulate the relative volumes of microphones, tape decks, and turntables.

Dramatics

All in dramatics is not acting. Other facets are just as critical to the successful well-received production. In certain cases, off-stage auditory sounds are incorporated into a play. In the freshman production of "Bernadine," the supplementary music and noises were taped, with Howard Wilson as comptroller.

Make-up often requires unique techniques of facial colouring to yield an aged appearance. In order to age this coed, methods of facial shadowing were crucial. Eyes were treated to appear as if only partially opened while the cheekbones were highlighted to appear predominant and thereby suggest maturity.

The Spring production of "The Pajama Game" was directed by Ben Tone. This two-act musical features such songs as, "Hey There," "Steam Heat," and "Hernando's Hideway." In this scene, Hines, played by Gary Treglown, and the Chorus are singing about their work in a number entitled, "Racing With The Clock."

Spring Play - "The Pajama Game"

Virginia Tooke, as Mae, and dancer Jim are factory personnel. Mae is a dress designer and Jim, who is her assistant, often argue about the creations, culminating their "talks" with some of the most comical lines in the play.

"Gladys," played by Betsy Hipley, and "Prez," played by Lowell Dightman engage in a rollicking flirt scene as they decide to attend the picnic.

Frosh Play: "Bernadine"

"Bernadine" was directed by Clayt Horan. Characters were all freshman and the world they portrayed was complete with its own set of values, rules, dreams, and orgies. It showed the world as the characters saw it, with subtle commentaries on the adult generation. The modern play takes place on a Saturday in a small town in the late Spring. The memorable scenes included the beatniks lamenting over the, "mythical, enchanting Bernadine" and chats between Beau and his former girlfriend, Jean.

Fall Play: "School for Wives"

Director Ben Tone produced a superb work in Moliere's "School for Wives." A translation used in the production rendered the dialogue meaningful to modern audiences. This aided to transcend the 300-year time barrier. The costume staff did a highly commendable job of creating Renaissance costumes. The wigs were well-designed and executed showing professional talent in their rendering. Bob McLaughlin portrayed the possessive and shrewd Arnolphe, a French bourgeois, who is obsessed with the plight of his married contemporaries. Arnolphe was complemented by the performance of Kathine Jones as Agnes. Her search for warmth and love was conveyed with sincerity and compassion.

Christmas Sing

The annual Christmas Sing was given in the Old Gym on Sunday, December 5. The program contained twenty-four numbers performed by members of residence halls, the fraternities and sororities, and the Montanans. Included in the selections were: "Do You Hear What I Hear?," "Chestnuts Roasting On An Open Fire," and "Come Dear Children," with solos by members of the Montanans injecting variety into the public concert. The decorations were purposely kept simple and emanated the spiritual warmth of the season. The entire broadcast of the event was carried by a local commercial radio station as well as by the campus radio station.

Madrigal Dinner

The Wassail Bowl and the Boars Head ceremony highlighted the annual Madrigal Dinner held in the SUB, on December 4. The dinner was sponsored by an MSU music honorary, Mu Sigma Alpha. Entertainment for the dinner included Ben Tone as "Lord of the Manor," the traditional Boars Head pageant, and colorfully costumed Jesters and Minstrels with music by the choral and chamber groups under the baton of Mr. Bruce Brown. Those 552 people who were present at the festivities culminated their dinner with a raisin-flavored, flaming, Figgy Pudding.

Special guests at the dinner were members of Student Senate and members of the Advisory Council, who were all sponsored by President Leon Johnson.

Fall People

"My date — I thought she was yours!"

Fall People enjoy many and diverse forms of recreation and pleasure. The orientation week dances in the SUB are often a social contact for future outings. Traditional influences are enforced and continued — the bennie, the M — Day whitewash, and the Hello Walk are all revisited. Weird halftime programs during athletic events provide new visual and auditory experiences.

Fall People are subjected to these phenomena and with this subjection enters their continued challenge for valid meanings in enjoyment.

"Would the delegation from Israel please step forward."

"Work Study in Action!"

Of what value is entertainment? Is it just to offer escape from academic strain or to complement educational instruction? Is it just to expose one to new sensations of light and sound? Is it only to present non-traditional ideas? Is it just to develop your appreciation of the talents of others and to even stimulate one to develop a new talent of his own? Is it just to relieve sexual tensions?

Perhaps this is a personal decision — each student deciding which reasons are of value to him.

Got to get off
Need to get
Have to get off all alone,
Got to find out
Need to find
Have to find life on my own;

How can I know
Where can I know
How can I know what I should be,
If I don't go
If I can't go
If I don't go where I'm free.

Interfraternity Council is the governing body for the fraternities on campus. Membership is composed of two representatives from each house, one of which is the chapter President. IFC is designed to promote cooperation and an understanding among the eleven fraternities on the campus. The council is continually working for the promotion of the entire Greek system. IFC awards a trophy to the house having the highest grades each quarter as a means of scholastic encouragement. Cultural programs, intramural athletic events, campus politics, and Greek Week are other areas of business on the IFC agenda. One of the main objects of IFC is the programming of Rush Week. Regulations for rush are established by the council and it acts as an arbitrator of these regulations. The entire week's events are coordinated and carried out by IFC leadership. Of significant concern this year was the adaption of racial clauses in fraternity constitutions.

Panhellenic Council

Pan Hellenic Council is composed of one member from each of the six sororities in addition to a President. The officers are on a prescribed rotating basis. Pan Hel coordinated the rush programs of all the houses into a unified endeavor, eliminating unnecessary confusion. Pan Hel, in conjunction with IFC, sponsored Greek Week — with its accompanying banquets, athletic games, and songfest. Junior Pan Hel, consisting of a pledge representative from each house, entertained a Jr. Pan Hel Banquet in the spring honoring the pledge class of each sorority. Through these two organizations, inter-cooperation was attained by the sororities.

The past year has been an exciting one for the Alpha Gams, with members participating in Alpha Lambda Delta, Spurs, Mortar Board, Angel Flight, Dolphins, and several departmental honoraries. Highlights of the year included the crowning of the Homecoming Queen, Pi Kappa Alpha Dream Girl, AGR Pink Rose Sweetheart, and Lambda Chi Alpha Crescent Girl.

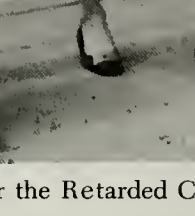

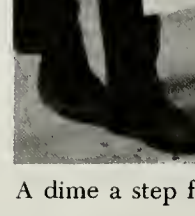

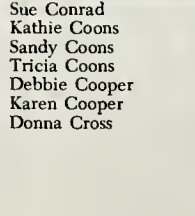

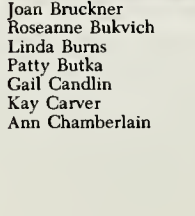

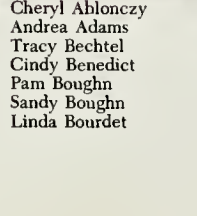

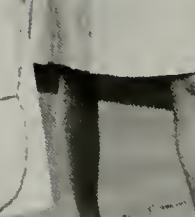

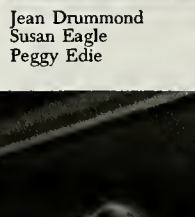

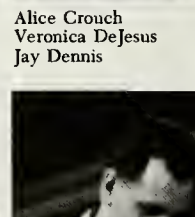

Alpha Gam Man Dave Burns

Alpha Gamma Delta was established on this campus in 1924, on March 14. Since then it has become involved in many activities — both on campus and in the community. Each year, Alpha Gamma Delta sponsors a pop bottle drive and donates the proceeds to the Cerebral Palsy Association. They also take an active part in the March of Dimes drive in the Bozeman vicinity.

Chi Omega's are known for pulling off surprises and getting surprised — a breakfast (pledge) at 6:30 (what a time), a pantry raid, stray serenades at 3:00 A.M., and stealing Constantine. Chi Omegas scored this year by having the Phi Sig, Sigma Chi, Sig Ep, and Mardi Gras queens. On Woman's Day, Chi Omega gives a scholarship to an outstanding girl in economics and the Bobbie Clark Memorial to a French student.

In addition to a successful drive for our philanthropic project to aid the blind, this year our pledges were first in grades. We started off the year winning the Sig Alpha Olympics trophy, kept up the pace, and won five AWS officers — including President for next year. Royalty included Delta Sig Carnation Girl and Miss MSU 1968-69.

Campus expansion became more evident in February when Kappa Delta Sorority moved into the first house located on Greek Way. Designed by McIver and Hess of Great Falls and constructed by Robert Taylor of Bozeman, the new house will eventually be joined by other Greek houses on Greek Way. The National Officers and outstanding alumnae dedicated the house on April 21, when the Kappa Delta's opened their doors to welcome many friends to their annual Spring Tea in honor of their housemother.

Sigma Omega of Kappa Delta was nationalized on Oct. 24, 1924. We contribute to the Crippled Children's Hospital in Richmond, Virginia — thus doing our part to support our national philanthropy. This year, Kappa Delta was represented with officers in AWS, Residence halls, S.E.A., and Spurs — in addition to claiming the President of Panhellenic Council. Our members are found in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Phi Kappa Phi, the MSU Chorale and MSU Orchestra.

The new house has plenty of room for those projects that have to be all spread out.

The Christmas Party was a great event especially with a female Santa.

King of the Hill

Dennis Seibel

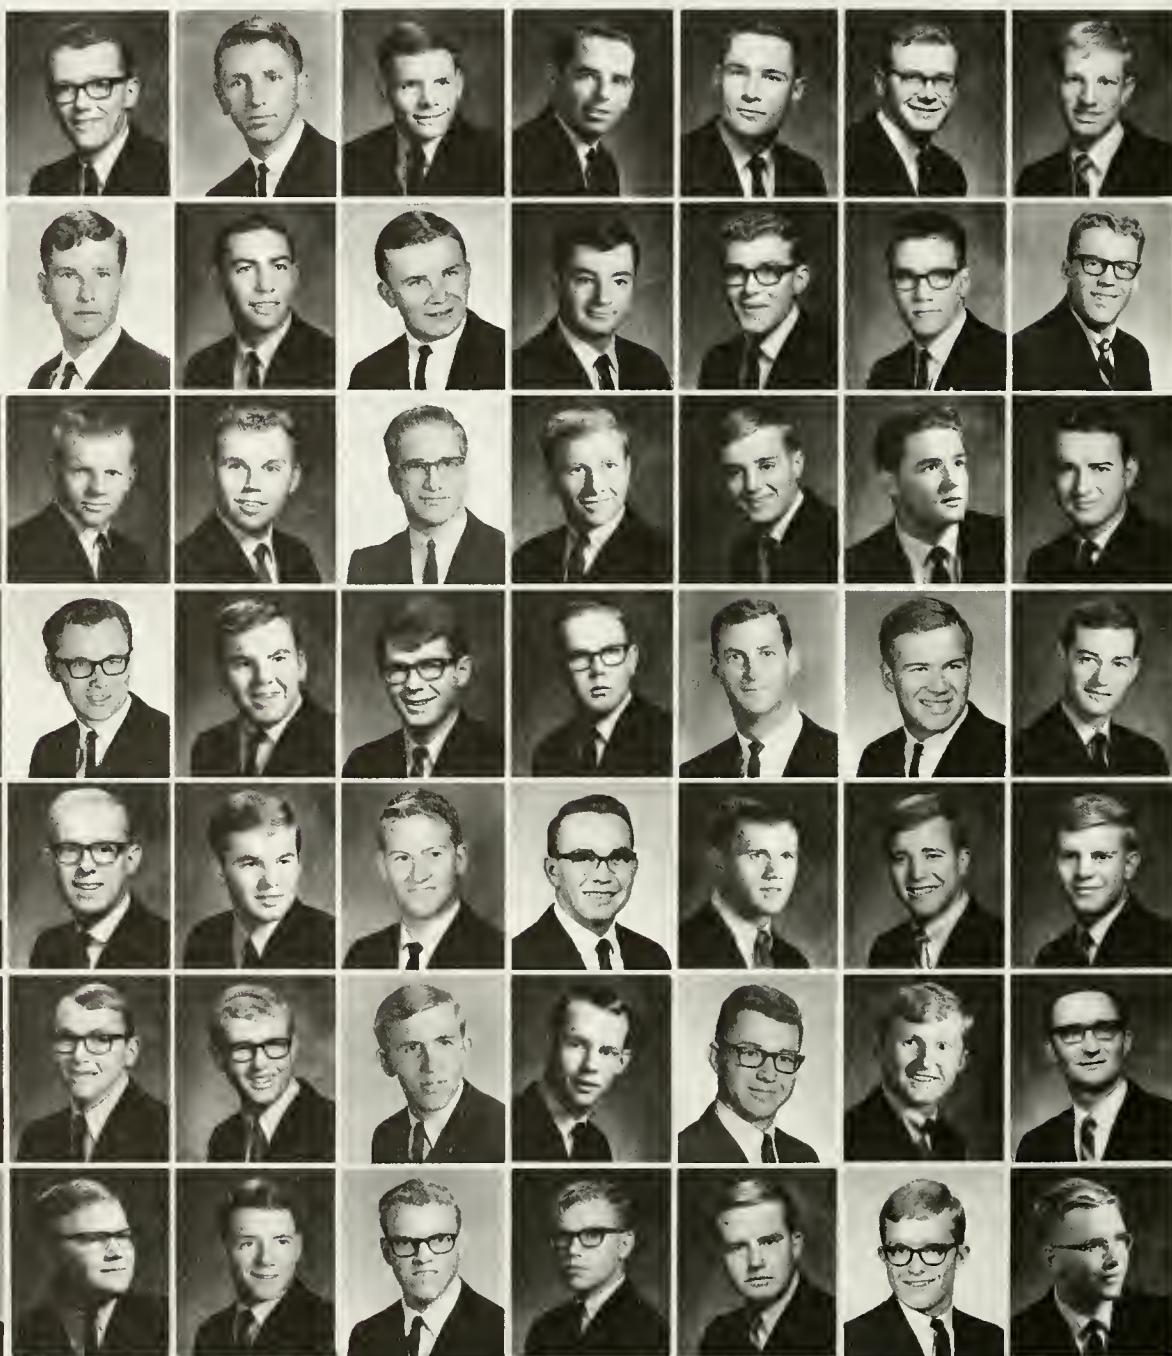

Montana Alpha Chapter of Pi Beta Phi, the first national fraternity for women, has been established on the MSU campus since 1921. From that time it has grown to an organization of over ninety actives and pledges. Highlights of the Pi Phi year are such events as the Roaring 20's Fall Party, always a tremendous success with the Charleston beads and hip flasks, and the Derby Dance, proceeds which go to our national philanthropy. A special Pi Phi tradition is the annual crowning of the King of the Hill, chosen from a group of fraternity men and an independent known as the Brothers of the Arrow. The 1968 King of the Hill is Dennis Seibel.

Alpha Gamma Rho was proud to have one of its alumni members awarded an Honorary Doctor Degree. Colt Suneson was also awarded an outstanding alumni award by the Alpha Delta Chapter. A yearly service project of hosting a Christmas Childrens Party and assisting with the Easter Seal drive compose our community service projects. Butch Gillespie represented us on Student Senate as Commissioner of Judging Teams. We also had major offices in AG Club, the President, Vice-President, and Treasurer of the sophomore class, and officers in the agricultural honorary, Alpha Zeta. AGR's Doug Smith and Allan Loudon were members of Pi Kappa Delta, the national debate honorary, and have traveled extensively throughout the United States on their debate tourneys. We also boasted the Treasurer of Fangs. The house received several improvements this year — plus new carpeting, new wood and cork paneling for the dining and trophy rooms, respectively; new coffee tables, lamps, dining room chairs, and some space-age, bucket-seat furniture for the guest and trophy rooms. The IFC Scholarship trophy sat in our house this year. Such was life at Alpha Gamma Rho.

The Delta Eta Chapter of Delta Sigma Phi was installed at MSU in the spring of 1957, helping one another to become finer men is the philosophy of Delta Sigma Phi. This philosophy is formally recognized in a program known as "Engineered Leadership." Intramurals play an important role in our activities, with active participation encouraged. The Delta Sigs biggest social event of the year is the Carnation Ball, held every Winter Quarter. We sponsored, in conjunction with the Jaycees, an Easter Egg Hunt for the children of Bozeman. Other events ranged from unusual pinning ceremonies to lively Spring "outings."

Stardust Girl Linda Bussinger

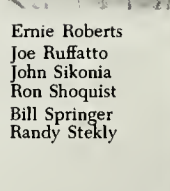

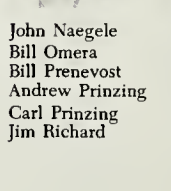

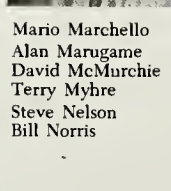

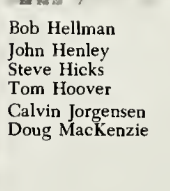

Spurred on by the prospect of a new chapter house in the near future, the members of Kappa Sigma have made the 1967-68 school year one of the most successful in its 42 years on campus. To start off well, the twenty-five pledges obtained the highest grades on the hill with a 3.01 G.P.A. Fall Quarter. In addition, good participation in intramurals and fraternity functions helped to make Fall Quarter enjoyable. Winter Quarter started off with the election of Dave Hess as President and Charles Brekjern as Vice-President. The quarter was topped with the Stardust Ball, the best decorated winter formal on campus. In intramurals, the bowling team broke most of the existing records on its way to the first place trophy. Spring Quarter began with the choosing of an architect for the new house. Tentative plans are for a new house on Greek Way or on the present location within a year. And, now that the days are getting longer, the Kappa Sigs are eagerly anticipating the other well-known benefits of Spring Quarter. In addition to normal fraternity activities, Kappa Sigma has undertaken the sponsorship of a Japanese orphan, 8 year old Tomoko Anami, and also assisted the Heart Fund and Easter Seal Drives.

The Fall Quarter was ushered in with the traditional Yukon Days — complete with straw, trees, logging boots, wool shirts, beards (which our dates shaved) and the old Garter Dance — the winner being unquestionably daring. We took second in intramural volleyball and had a golf medalist. Winter Quarter saw Dave Burns winning the Alpha Gam Man title and a new first place trophy for intramural skiing. Spring Quarter survived the “Tom Jones” Party — surprisingly, so did the brothers.

"Individualism and personal progress through a brotherly effort" are the goals of the Montana Beta Colony of Phi Delta Theta. Our colony was established on this campus in November, 1965. Phi Delta Theta, one of the three largest national fraternities, was founded in 1848 at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. Since then it has grown to contain over 130 chapters in the United States and Canada. We are the newest house at MSU and are growing fast in all phases of student activities. We are a relatively small organization and plan to stay that way so that we may enjoy the true brotherhood that a fraternity has to offer.

Preparing for the Roman Orgy.

One hour to go.

The past year has been one of marked growth for the newest Greek organization on the hill. In campus politics, Jerry Omundson was selected as the 1968 Homecoming Chairman; Duane Rol worked with the Student Senate committee on academic freedom. Bruce Brown, a member of Pi Tau Sigma, the mechanical engineering honorary, acted as secretary of that organization. For the first time, two Phi Delts — Doug Spranger and Jerry Omundson — were selected as Les Bouffons, senior mens social honorary. This year Gordy Johnson had the fastest time in the intramural skiing championship. Other Phi Delt intramural activities showed keen competition against their opponents. Two of the main social functions of the year, the Ski Party and the Roman Orgy, were attended by many guests — in addition to the brothers. The large attendance and the tradition of these events, again showed Phi Delt style. The marked improvement of the PHI's and the approval of the national organization, will hopefully lead to their installation in the near future.

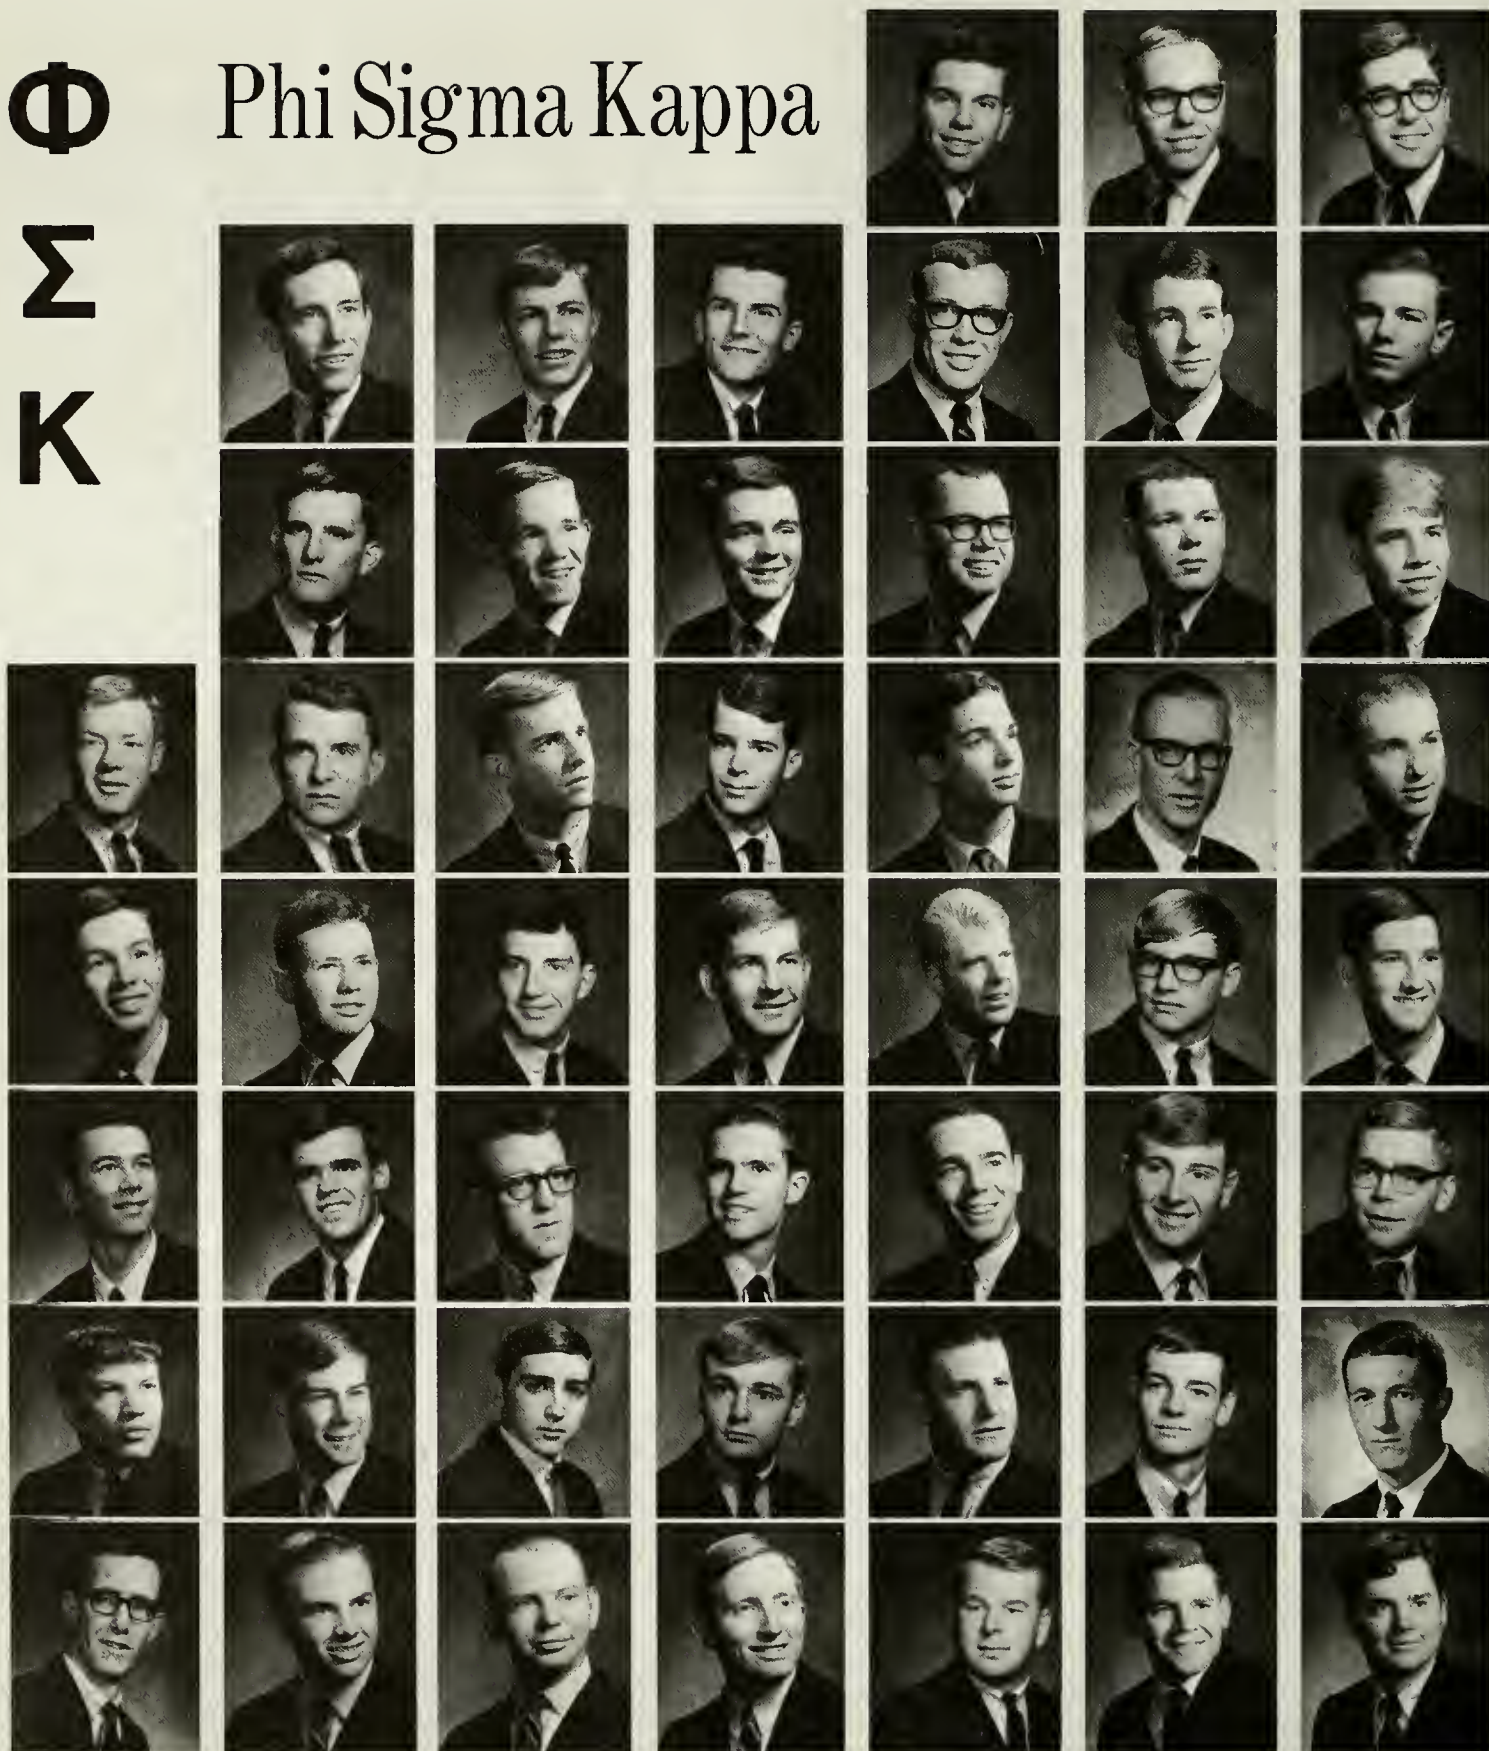

One-legged pushup fun.

The Phi Sigs participated actively in intramural sports and have accumulated enviable records in many of the events. We have consistently ranked among the top three fraternities in scholarship. Social functions this year included the Yard Party, a costume party with a comic strip character theme, the Moonlight Ball, and the Winter Party. Our theme for the Winter Carnival snow sculpture was "Andy Capp," and our theme for the Homecoming float was "Trails Plowed Under," from the book of the famous Montana author — Charles M. Russell.

The Fall Quarter functions of Pi Kappa Alpha were the "Come as You Wish You Were" fireside and the "Lil Abner" Party. In football we showed great improvement by winning or tying the last five games. Winter quarter functions consisted of the "Pajama Party" fireside and the "Dream Girl Formal" — climaxed by the crowning of Betty Vanatta, a Spur and a member of Alpha Gamma Delta, as the new Dream Girl. The Pi Week drive was successful with $1,000 being raised and donated to the March of Dimes, bringing our total donation to over $12,000. We received fourth place in football and second place in bowling. During the year 21 pledges went active — by the end of Spring Quarter there were 45 actives, not counting graduating seniors. On March 1 we had our 100 year Anniversary. We were founded at the U. of Virginia, March 1, 1868, and the Centennial Convention this coming August will be held at that campus.

We started off Fall Quarter with the traditional Sig Alph Olympics. We tied for second place in intramural football, and boasted of our eight players and trainer who were on the varsity football team. We took first place in volleyball through a team effort. The Pajama Dance and the Western-theme Fall Party were functions to be remembered. In Winter Quarter we captured first place in intramural basketball in addition to having three members on the varsity squad. A third place in bowling added to our list of athletic accomplishments. The Winter Formal, Pledge Dinner-Dance, and Founder's Day Open House composed our social schedule. In the Spring we participated in intramural track, baseball, wrestling, and tennis. We had eight members on the varsity track team and three members on the varsity baseball team. The pledge sneak, Spring Party, and Roman Orgy (one to be remembered) filled our social calendar.

Sororities compete in the Sig Alph Olympics in such zany games as the girls tug-of-war, tricycle race, greased pig contest, and obstacle course.

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity has good reason to be proud of its Little Sisters of Minerva. Under the direction of their president Carol McCaw, the Little Sisters have participated in various functions with their "brothers," including rush, pledging, cooking breakfast, helping with fund raising for the house, and helping with community service projects.

The SAE's have a costume Halloween Party for the children of the area surrounding their house. The Little Sisters assisted with the function by aiding those witches and goblins that had trouble of any sort.

Sigma Chi is a slice of life — start with a contemporary, lodge-inspired structure, add a spacious parking lot, and top with men of many places — even North Dakota. Mix with paint liberally applied by pledges for firesides and spice with the B. Terrill Dog Pound. Stir in the campus politicians (five Student Senate members, Les Buffs, and Fangs). Add the Chairmen — MSU 75th Anniversary, Homecoming, IFC Rush, Student Discipline, Faculty Evaluation, and Elections. Toss in a pumpkin from our second place float and some snow from our first place “Goofy.” Add the sweat of athletes who took firsts in intramural cross country and golf, intramural seconds in football and skiing, and lettered in football and wrestling. Sprinkle with the strains of the player piano, light from the 3rd floor Pi Phi arrow, and warmth of the burning garbage cans. Enhance this with Santa’s fictitious hamburgers, marinate in a keg of beer, a cup of daisy jug, and a drop of GPA. Broil over the senior Bar-B-Que and serve hot. Sigma Chis excel individually and collectively.

About the orange juice . . .

Sigma Nu received its charter at MSU on February 2, 1952. Since that time we have initiated over 400 men into the active chapter of Sigma Nu Fraternity. This year we had members active in Student Senate (having four commissioners), four members in Septemviri, and officers in Fangs, Interfraternity Council, and Phi Eta Sigma. We had six men listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Several members also participated in the MSU Honor Program.

Queen of Hearts

Sue Fletcher

Montana Beta Chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon is the second newest fraternity on the MSU campus. The Sig Eps started the year by taking first place in the Homecoming Parade float contest with their rendition of "King Neptune." They also won the all-campus blood drawing for the third quarter in a row. Winter Quarter brought the annual Queen of Hearts Ball. At this dinner-dance, Sue Fletcher, a freshman Chi Omega from Minnesota, was chosen as Queen. The social calendar was rounded out with the Spring Party, a fireside each quarter, serenades, teas, and many informal gatherings. Sig Eps served as Vice President of Fangs, Freshman Class President, and as Commissioners of Dramatics and Traditions.

Winter Activities

Winter brought the cold, the snow, the ice, the wind, the ruddy cheeks, the broken skis, the toboggan parties, the hot-buttered rums, the slippery sidewalks, the cozy fireplaces, the fraternity and sorority Winter Formal Dances, the trips to Sun Valley and Jackson Hole, the afternoon skating parties, the snow sculptures, the autos in ditches, the hoarfrost, the Bag End, the music concerts, the basketball games, the furry ski jackets, the après-ski boots, the snowflakes of many shapes and sizes, the Winter Olympics, the intramural competition in basketball, volleyball, and skiing, the Miss MSU Pageant, the dreaded 8 o'clocks, the broken legs, and the steamed-up windshields behind the fieldhouse. Winter brought man and nature a bit closer.

Mardi Gras King
Bob Yunck

Highlight of the social activities of the Neuman Foundation each year is the Mardi Gras, held the Saturday before Ash Wednesday. Presiding over the festivities were Queen Mary F. Johnson, Chi Omega; and King Bob Yunck, Sigma Chi. The candidates, representing living groups of the campus, were honored at a dinner at the Neuman Center. A special feature of this year's activities was continuous music provided by two bands — the Radical Five and the Four Below. The ballroom is decorated each year in a Mardi Gras theme and the social committee of the Neuman Foundation coordinates all of the activities of the dance.

Miss MSU

The Miss Montana State University Pageant, a financially self-sufficient activity sponsored by the Associated Students, is held every year near the end of Winter Quarter. In the Pageant, which is an official preliminary of the Miss America Pageant, Miss MSU is chosen on the basis of beauty, talent, poise, and personality. Any girl who plans to return to MSU next year, is encouraged to compete. Living groups nominate two girls, but a girl does not have to be nominated by a group to compete. At the prelims the number of girls is narrowed to ten who go on to compete in the pageant itself. Winner of the Pageant receives honor, as well as a scholarship and wardrobe assistance, and the opportunity to participate in the Miss Montana Pageant in the summer. The Pageant, held in the Wilson Auditorium, was well-attended by students and townspeople.

The victory ramp awaited the new Miss MSU.

The Associated Women Students of Montana State University annually promote the Capers Carnival in Winter Quarter. Each living group sets up a game booth with the net income donated to AWS. The Spurs and Fangs, with the stockades, donated the largest amount of revenue this year. The AWS, in turn, gives six, $100 scholarships at the Awards Assembly to students, both male and female, who have demonstrated outstanding scholarship and financial need.

Forty-eight racers entered the intramural competition.

The Winter Carnival, sponsored by the MSU Ski Club, was plagued by a sub-zero blizzard. Snow sculptures were cancelled for a week with final winners being Sigma Chi and Pi Beta Phi. The fastest times on the course were turned in by Gordy Johnson for men and Sue Fletcher for the women; Lambda Chi fraternity and Chi Omega sorority capped team honors.

The icy course caused an unusual number of falls.

Entertainment

"Good Evening Americans . . ."

The Cultural Affairs Board of the Associated Students of Montana State University sponsored or co-sponsored a total of nine major events during the 1967-68 school year. The entire program budget was in the neighborhood of $12,000. Fall Quarter saw the performance of the Royal Winnipeg Ballet and lecturer Fred Hoyle. Winter Quarter brought Paul Harvey, Collin Jackson, and Charles Rosen. Spring Quarter opened with a concert by the Minneapolis Symphony followed by lecturers Will Rogers Jr., Paul Cannon, and Dr. G. M. Gilbert.

Hoyle spoke to an SRO audience in the New Chemistry Building with the lecture being televised to two rooms in Reid which were filled with people. The Symphony was held in the fieldhouse using the new acoustical shell. Terrible weather — but an excellent turnout. The Fieldhouse Board brought in Sony and Cher and the Pozo Seco Singers to complement the entertainment of the Cultural Affairs Board.

Basketball

After last year's tie for the Big Sky Championship, the Bobcat cagers dropped to a disappointing tie for fourth place. The final statistics were fairly close and it seemed to be a case of just never quite jelling with the exception of the Cats' heartening 107-76 win over the Grizzlies. As a team, the Cats averaged 50 per cent of their field goals and averaged 76.8 points per game to their opponents' 44 per cent and 81.8 points. In the free throw the Cats did just slightly better than their opponents with a 69 to 68 per cent. Individually, Jack Gillespie was outstanding for the Bobcats. He was the top scorer in 20 and the top rebounder in 22 of the 25 games. However, Greg Harris had the highest total for one game — 42 against Portland State. Gillespie's season average of 21.5 not only led the rest of the Bobcats, but the rest of the Big Sky Conference as well.

Bonnie Roberts tries her best to keep spirits up.

That's the hard way to keep the ball.

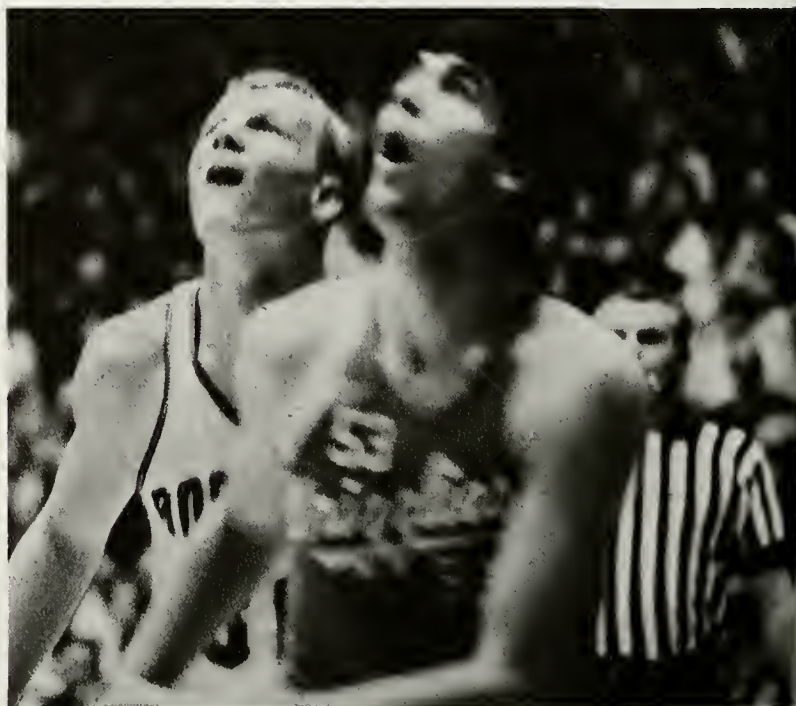

Jack Gillespie has the extra inch or two it takes to go over an Idaho opponent.

Cats Take Tips

Even a somewhat disappointing season such as this one was can be salvaged with victories over the Grizzlies from over the hill. If the three victories were sweet for the rest of the Bobcats, they were even sweeter for big Jack Gillespie. In the first of the three games, the Cats nipped the Grizzlies by a score of 83-79, led by Gillespie and his 40 points. The second night he contributed 35 points as the Cats romped over the hapless Tips to the tune of 107-76. The only real suspense in the game was whether or not the Cats would pass 100 points. The third game of the series was played in Missoula. The score was tied with only one second to go when Gillespie let loose with a 20 foot hook shot which gave the Cats the game, 62-60. At the end of the season, Gillespie had captured the Big Sky scoring title. He averaged 21.5 points per game to edge Idaho State's Ron Boone with a 21.1 average. Gillespie also tied for second in rebounding with Weber's Dan Sparks.

Should I fake a foul, coach, or hit the guy?

The kittens go for two against North Idaho.

Games can be won on the sidelines also.

December tourney time found the Bobcats in Houston, Texas for the Blue Bonnet Classic. The first night of the tourney looked like a re-run of last year's showing in Oklahoma City, where the Cats surprised everyone by taking the tournament. In the first game, the Cats staged a near-impossible comeback to defeat Mississippi State. After trailing by 11 points with only 7 minutes to go, they tied it with 3:07 left and went on to win 81-73. The second night was a different story as the nation's top team, Houston, completely out-classed the Bobcats to the score of 113-67. As coach Craft said, "Now I know how Custer felt when the Indians swarmed in on him." On the brighter side, Jim Tillman was named to the all-tournament team.

POMPON GIRLS — Francie Marble, Bonnie Allen, Gay Winchester, and Chris Erickson.

Skiing

For the third time in three years, the Bobcat skiers have taken the Big Sky Crown. Since the Cats had little competition from within the conference, they were more concerned with two other teams competing in the combination conference championships and invitational meet. The final tally found the Cats on top with 369.74 points, the U. of Washington second with 358.80, and the U. of Utah third with 329.55. The nearest Big Sky opponent, the U. of Montana, finished 70 points behind the Cats.

Determination is as important as wax.

A sweep of the jumping events gave MSU a win in its own invitational meet. The three schools which competed in all events were Montana State, with 379.18, the Air Force Academy with 349.74 points, and the University of Montana with 306.29.

The season's record for the wrestling team was six wins and five losses. The co-captains were seniors Karl Ohs and Larry Leonard. The team voted the most valuable player award to Karl Ohs. The Bobcats beat the U. of M. in two different matches and also beat Utah State, Hiram Scott, Whitworth, and Weber State. Losses went to B.Y.U., Washington State, Minot State, Bemdji State, and Idaho State.

Lowell Springer, in the 160 lb. class, locks up to set up a takedown.

Bill Anderson, in the 137 lb. class, maneuvers to roll over his opponent.

The Big Sky Championships were held in Pocatello, Idaho, at Idaho State University. There are six schools in the Big Sky Conference: Idaho State, Gonzaga, Weber State, University of Idaho, University of Montana and MSU. Big Sky Champions were Larry Leonard, Merle Olson, and Karl Ohs. Bill Anderson, Lowell Spring, and Mike Myers captured second places. Wrestlers and their respective weight divisions were:

Dave Steen	115 lbs.
Larry Leonard	130 lbs.
Bill Anderson	137 lbs.
Merle Olson	145 lbs.
Lonnie Niswanger	152 lbs.

Judo

Officially organized this year, the MSU Judo and Karate Club expanded to hold classes in both judo and karate. Participating in numerous tournaments, the club managed to place 2nd in team standing throughout the state of Montana.

This was the first year that the club sent a team to the National Collegiate Judo Championships. Several of the team members received promotions and will return next year.

Members who played a big part in the team's success, but are not pictured included Norm LeFevre, George Myers, Dennis Morgan, Greg Graves, and Walt Schaff.

Intramurals

I don't know, it looks like basketball."

The number of students who participate in varsity athletics is comparatively small when the entire enrollment of the university is considered. Some of those who desire some sort of athletic activity find it through a physical education course, but the vast majority find it through participation in the intramural program.

Once again, the program was headed by the versatile Dobbie Lambert. Intramurals was represented in Student Senate by its own commissioner Bill Zimmerman. Men competed in either Greek or dorm leagues and in some sports the dorm leagues were sub-divided due to the large number of participants. Point totals were kept during the year in the Greek league and a final champion was named.

"You say I have to knock all those little things down?"

Intramural games may have lacked the Bobcats' crowds, but they had all of the excitement.

WAA

Kneeling: Barb Krall, Barb Flint, Gwen Elings. Sitting: Gail Candlin, Sandy Magill, Margie Gillett, Robin Abell, Janet Boyd, Mary Ann Bailey. Standing: Shelly Hartung, Diane Ellwein, Mary Heffern, Mary Jo McQuirck.

The WAA basketball team completed its third season without a loss by defeating Missoula, Washington State, Rocky Mountain in Billings, and Western Montana. The campus intramural tournament was won by Hapner Hall. A volleyball clinic was held on campus for officials, timers, and scorers. The officials were given written and practical exams. A group of WAA members put on a tumbling exhibition during the half time of one of the Bobcat basketball games.

In addition to basketball and volleyball, members participated in track, swimming, tennis, badminton, softball, and bowling. Recreational swimming was held in the old gym every Thursday night.

"The game's rotten, but look at that boy down there."

"Oh, please lady, save my bird."

Hope and joy.

It's called getting close to your work.

Forensics

Forensics offers a forum for discussing topics of national and international concern. The ability to express one's self clearly and concisely goes beyond the debate tournament per se, permeating the participant's classroom and extra-curricular activities. It is often termed the only MSU inter-collegiate competitive event based on intellectual endeavor alone. National prominence for MSU has culminated in a recognition that includes executive positions in several national forensics honoraries and national debate tournaments. Presently, M-State coach Les Lawrence is a council man for Pi Kappa Delta — the honorary for debate, and is being touted as its next president. "Debate goes so much further than a silver trophy. The schools, the people you swap minds with, and the perspective it gives you in communications make you cognizant; it gives you the matrix to build a personality."

Bert Tarrant

Geoff Gibbs and Hank Preshinger scored yet were upset at the Wyomont meet held at Rocky Mountain College in Billings. The first round they beat the U. of M's first place debate team and the second round they beat their second place debate team. But in the finals lost to their third place team — their girl's team.

The junior debate team, of George Antonsen and Steve Anacker, placed third at the Yellowstone meet at Eastern Montana College.

The debate team, chosen by the regional committee of debate coaches, which represented MSU at the National Qualifying meet at the Univ. of Oregon, was composed of Tom Schmalz and Greg Mullally.

A debate, which lasts one hour and twenty minutes, challenges mental stamina, taxes alertness, and also measures knowledge of the subject.

M-State has placed no lower than third in all meets attended thus far this year. One of the outstanding wins came with the second place finish of Mullally and Schmalz in the Western Speech Association tournament in Sacramento, Calif. The University of Southern California — with full-ride scholarships, a blank check budget, and over 30 graduate students involved, won the tourney on a split decision. Schmalz and Mullally also placed in the Wyoming Invitational Tournament while Louden and Tarrant carried the colors in the Yellowstone Valley Tournament in Billings and in MSU's own Treasure State Tournament.

The Symphonic Orchestra played for the massive production of Giuseppe Verdi's "Requiem." Symphony director Creech Reynolds conducted both of the performances, held on February 19 and 20, and artfully drew the religious strains from the orchestra to complement the depth and tonality of the vocal components.

In the fall, the newly-formed MSU Wind Ensemble, consisting of thirty-five selected wind instrumentalists, chose a program of 20th Century band music for their first public concert. A later concert was followed by a spring tour. The MSU Bobcat Marching Band added vigor and pep to the aura of the MSU athletic events. The symphonic Band gave a benefit concert for the Heart Fund and toured central Montana with a series of nine concerts.

MONTANANS: Gale Kinzie, Paula Sparlin, Cynde Easton, Lynne Malvin, Pat Hove, Patty Tobin, Alice Hollenstiner, Patty Bateman. Row Two: Paul Ritter, Bill Altimus, Ben Laws, Jay Davis, Dick Shackelford, Jerry Schneider, Chuck Bateman, Dennis Dell.

Chamber Choir

In addition to assisting with the Madrigal Dinner, the MONTANANS provided the primary cast for the production of "The Marriage of Figaro" in May. In the spring they toured Canada and northern Montana. Smaller concerts were performed for students.

Chamber Choir is selected from Chorale. They gave a fall concert, performed at the Madrigal Dinner, and toured smaller towns in Montana and Wyoming. This group specializes in early Renaissance chamber music.

CHAMBER CHOIR: Terry Browning, Dorothy Dunn, Sue Judisch, Carol Collier, Lynn Melvin, Penni Holgate, Alice Hollenstiner, Terri Scharff. Row Two: Kelvin Caughlan, Ron Beuchler, Fred Nebel, John Onstead, Dan Hopper, David VanDyken, Jay Davis, Ivan Lorentzen, Paul Ritter, Chuck Howard.

Row Four: Sue Judisch, Linda Gibson, Jill Reeder, Lon Eliason, Steve Cordes, Jerry Arthun, Jerry Schneider, Rod Zent, Jay Davis, Dan Hopper, Tom Grayson, Mike McNeil, Alice Hollenstiner, Pat Hove, Lynne Melvin, Sandy Fransen.

The Music department was instrumental in the guest appearance of Charles Rosen, pianist. His public performance and private consultations were asthetically rewarding.

The 60-voice MSU Chorale's Fall Concert was highlighted by the Vivaldi "Magnificent," directed by Bruce Brown. Featured soloists were Cynde Easton, Paula Sparlin, Jill Reeder, Lynn Melvin, Chuck Bateman, and Ron Beuchler. The Winter Concert contained "The Creation" by Tom Scott. The setting of the story of the creation to music was narrated by Rod Zent. "Psalm 100," written for a double choir, was also performed. The MSU Chorale was the primary MSU vocal component of the presentation of Verdi's "Requiem." Soloists with the Chorale were soprano Dorothy Barnes, of the University of Idaho; mezzo-soprano Mary Moore, of Great Falls; tenor Dan Nelson, of MSU; and bass Larry Day, of Colorado State University.

Mike Cook, Editor

After the ads, literature, and artwork were completed, the staff arranged the materials in a pleasing manner.

Craig Howard, Associated Editor

"Apropos spent this year getting back on its feet after a dismal year in 1966-67. The newest and lowest budgeted of the publications, it had its problems getting the students' interest built up enough so that an adequate staff could be maintained. Despite these handicaps, and the fact that the magazine had only enough money to produce one issue per quarter, the issues that did appear featured the better prose and poetry written on campus, plus informative articles on the University and the State of Montana. Also included in each issue were reviews of L.P. Albums, reviews of current paperbacks, art work, illustrations, and photographs — all done by M.S.U. students."

"If you wanted to know what was going on at MSU, all you had to do was to go to the Exponent office on Wednesday nights. There you would have found a noisy, disorganized mob of characters in the act of putting out the weekly campus newspaper. It was a demanding job, but one of the most fun and worthwhile extra-curricular activities on campus.

The Exponent has been serving Montana State since 1910. It is completely run by students and they are proud of their free press. One of the Exponent's goals was to promote better student-faculty-administration relationships through mutual understanding. It tried to present a true and impartial picture of the day's events by reporting facts accurately and by presenting all sides of a story.

Besides exploring issues of vital student interest such as academic freedom or the drug question, the Exponent encouraged participation in campus activities by acting as a bulletin board for the many extra-curricular groups. It also served as a forum for public debate via editorials, weekly guest columns, and letters to the editor.

The staff claimed some Exponent firsts this year — a color Christmas literary and pictorial supplement and a special 38-page 75th Anniversary edition which reviewed MSU's history and future.

Bill Huntzicker, Exponent Editor, stated, 'The success of this year's paper was due to the most enthusiastic and cooperative staff the Exponent has ever had.'

"The dreaded deadlines were met — this year! Preliminary planning was done the previous summer as the editors formulated the basic thoughts and concepts which would unite all the matter in this book. Changes were sometimes made as supplementary ideas and material were interjected. Organizational meetings were well-attended and as Fall Quarter progressed, those students with interest and ability were given the editorships.

The color section received intense, concentrated treatment as over 400 slides were examined to obtain those for the first sixteen pages. The theme, "Reflections," was considered in picking the final pictures. The staff was extremely disappointed when the brown cow (symbol of Moo U.) could not be printed because the slide was too dark.

Trials and tribulations included a staff strike after a part of our total budget of $32,000 was tabled on purely a technical point by Finance Board. But this action was soon corrected.

Peggy Quist, the publisher's representative visited us several times and answered questions which had been annoying us. The phone bills increased as numerous intricate mistakes were corrected in time — thanks to Peggy.

In Spring quarter, the entire staff went to Salt Lake City courtesy of Student Senate and the publisher. There they met the publisher, were briefed on next year's book, and made final approvals on all sections of this year's annual.

Though hours were sometimes long and disagreements rose — these were outweighed by the personal pride in creating a good, solid annual. The Spring Quarter Publications Party reflected our relief in having completed our work for another year."

"The work of the Photo Department begins in the spring of each year with work on the color section, spring sports and tip-ins. In the fall, a staff is recruited and shooting begins in earnest — parties, games, activities . . . all-night printing sessions. Winter Quarter sees us at basketball games, more parties and in the dark-room printing frantically.

A MONTANAN Photographer is a combination of technician, artist, somnambulist and at least, according to the editor, part crazy. All and all the life of a photographer is at least interesting.

With the proceeds of their button sales and shoe shines they were able to perform at several schools and give exhibitions. Their many hours of practice (in the fieldhouse, armory, and SUB parking lot) paid off in their high placing when they attended the area competition at Seattle in April.

Arnold Air Society is a national honorary for advanced Air Force ROTC cadets. Each university that has an ROTC program has a corresponding Arnold Air Squadron — ours is the Eugene DeCosse squadron. Arnold Air promotes aerospace knowledge to the community through talks to numerous civic groups and clubs. It also provides motivation for becoming a military officer. This year our squadron was active in several civic projects; Arnold Air sponsored a clothing drive, for the children's schools at Boulder and Twin Bridges, started a Civil Air Patrol squadron in this area, and worked on the Flaming Arrow Boy's Ranch.

AUSA

AUSA is open to junior and senior army ROTC cadets. The military function of the organization is to expose the cadets to the social part of military life. For civic projects, the AUSA sponsored a house-to-house donation canvas for the Red Cross and escorted the Miss MSU candidates at the pageant. The organization held a "Dining In" Spring quarter at which time the senior cadets were honored. They also took a field trip to the Custer Battlefield where the episode was explained to them from a military standpoint.

MSU Rodeo

Getting the calf roped is only the start . . .

Two judges score each rider and horse on a basis of 100 points.

The MSU Rodeo Team was well-prepared for this year's rodeo due to the opportunity to practice in the new Arena West of the Vet Research Lab. The college-built building, measuring 220 by 80 feet, contained chutes, pens, and other practice equipment built by the Rodeo Club. The MSU Rodeo was held on April 18-20, inside the field-house. Specially-constructed pipe chutes and pens permitted the structures to be portable. The 150 entrants came from a myriad of schools — BYU, Utah State, Idaho State, Dixie, Weber, Ricks, Western, Eastern, and Northern Montana, and the University of Montana. In addition to the five major events for men there was a ribbon-roping event — a contestant roped his calf, ran to it and removed the ribbon tied to it, then foot-raced to the starting line. The girls competed in the barrel racing and goat tying events. The sororities of MSU competed in the calf scramble — the girls who put the T-shirt on their calf in the shortest time won. The fraternity men competed in the "Wild Cow" ride. Winners of each event, excluding the Greek events, received trophy buckles. The All-Around Cowboy and Cowgirl each were awarded a hand-tooled saddle and the High Point Cowboy from Montana won the Hart-Kramer Memorial trophy. On Saturday night, during the intermission, a colt was auctioned off and a saddle was raffled.

The romance of the old West lives on in college rodeo — an ever growing inter-collegiate sport.

"I told you to use your pants — they're three sizes bigger."

Little "I" gives students a chance to participate in all phases of livestock and grain judging.

Little I

Little I is a take-off on the Chicago International. Competition in the Little I, which is open to any student, consists of the showing of cattle, sheep, horses, and swine. An entrant need not necessarily have been raised on a farm or ranch as the competition is judged solely on the fineness of the showing. There are judging contests set up by each department — the Range Department had students judge range plots while the Agronomy Department had students judge and identify seeds and grains. Each department, in addition, sets up public displays such as the identification of meat cuts by the public. The Little I queen is chosen and the final night of the event is climaxed by the sumptuous portions of Bar-B-Cued beef served at a monumentous Big Sky Bar-B-Cue.

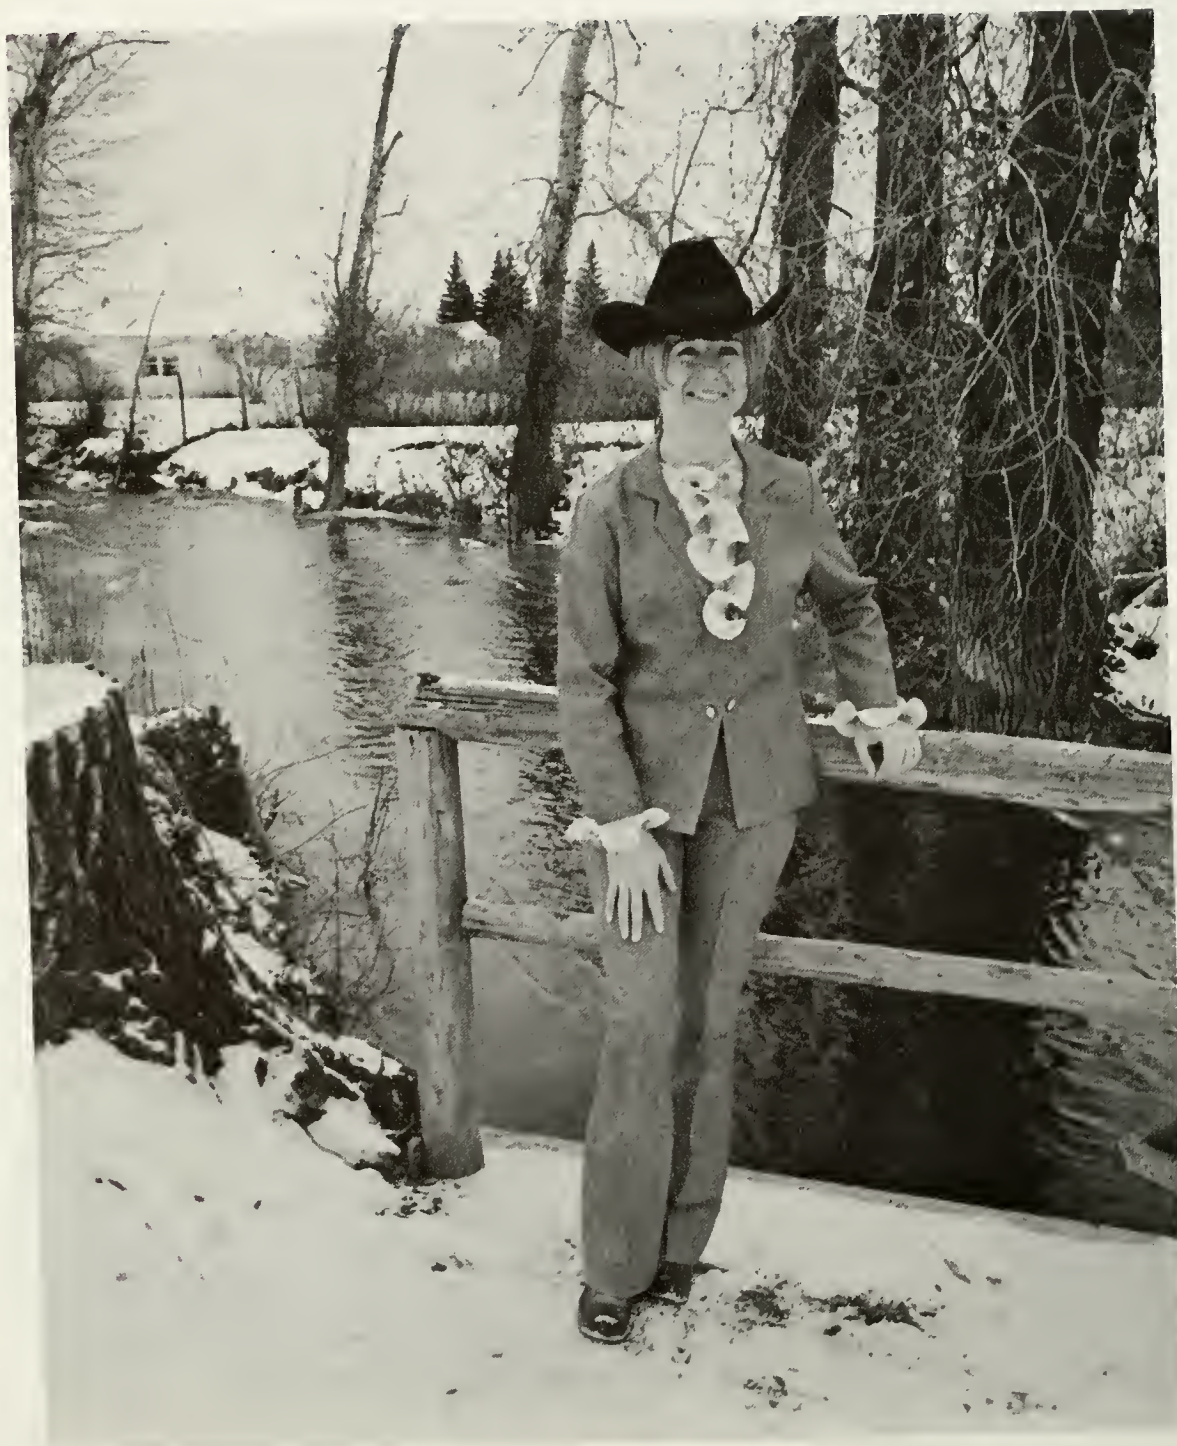

"Well, I know he's a little long, but there's not much I could do about it."

Judges give all livestock a very thorough going-over.

Fangs, the sophomore mens' counterpart of Spurs, is a vital part of our campus. They are charged with the enforcement of campus traditions-(the frosh wearing of the beanies), offer assistance to frosh women as they move into the dorms Fall Quarter, assist the Spurs in school elections, help with orientation and commencement, and usher at athletic events and entertainment performances.

Mortar Board, nationally recognized senior women service honorary, selects members on the basis of leadership, scholarship, and service. New members are selected in the spring and are announced at the annual Honors Day Assembly. This year Mortar Board sponsored a graduate seminar program, celebrated their 50th Anniversary, and gave awards to freshman girls having the highest grades at the end of the year.

Septemviri recognizes the seven outstanding senior men on campus. Founded in 1920 by a student resolution, Septemviri has maintained the highest of prerequisites for membership — high scholarship, extensive participation in activities, and honorable personality. These seven senior men, recognizable by the roman numeral VII on their blazers, assist with orientation and commencement weeks. They also sponsor the President's Assembly — at which the President gives his "State of the University" address.

Les Buffons

Jim Alderson

Les Buffs, or "The Clowns," is a strictly Greek organization composed of two members from each fraternity. Members are tapped in the spring by the old members. The Buffs add spice and vigor to the campus with their escapades. One student said, "They get away with what others would like to try." La Reine is the "Queen of the Clowns." This year the Buffs published their "Guide to Freshman Women," or "hog log" — as it is often called. In addition to their numerous functions, they gave scholarship and student government participation trophies to outstanding Greek fraternities and sororities. A scholarship of $100 was given to an outstanding freshman girl chosen by the faculty.

Who's Who

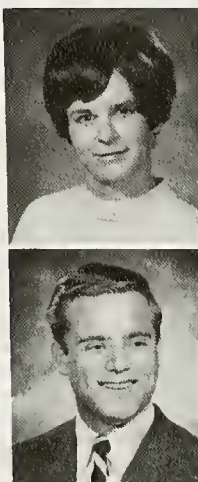

Who's Who is a national honorary. Both male and female students who are juniors are eligible. Notification of membership is given later on in the year. Members are chosen on the basis of outstanding service, leadership, citizenship, and promise of future usefulness. Although this organization holds no formal meetings or sponsors no projects, it does provide a placement or reference service to assist members seeking employment, scholarships, and fellowships.

SPRING SPORTS

SPRING SPORTS

Baseball

Although the Bobcat diamond men lost every game in the Banana Belt tournament, which was held at Lewiston, Idaho, they made a pretty good showing for themselves. The worst loss that they suffered was at the hands of champion Seattle University 5-0. They also lost to Idaho 5-4, Lewis-Clark Normal 5-3, Eastern Washington 5-3, and to Washington State 5-4. "For no more outside work than we'd had, we played pretty good baseball," said Coach Dobbie Lambert.

Swimming

Standing: John O'Leary, Gordon Kroener, Dave Allen, Mike Urban, Dennis Rock, Dave Anderson. Sitting: Ken Brady, Terry Nugent, Mary Ann Mullaly, Sandy Brown.

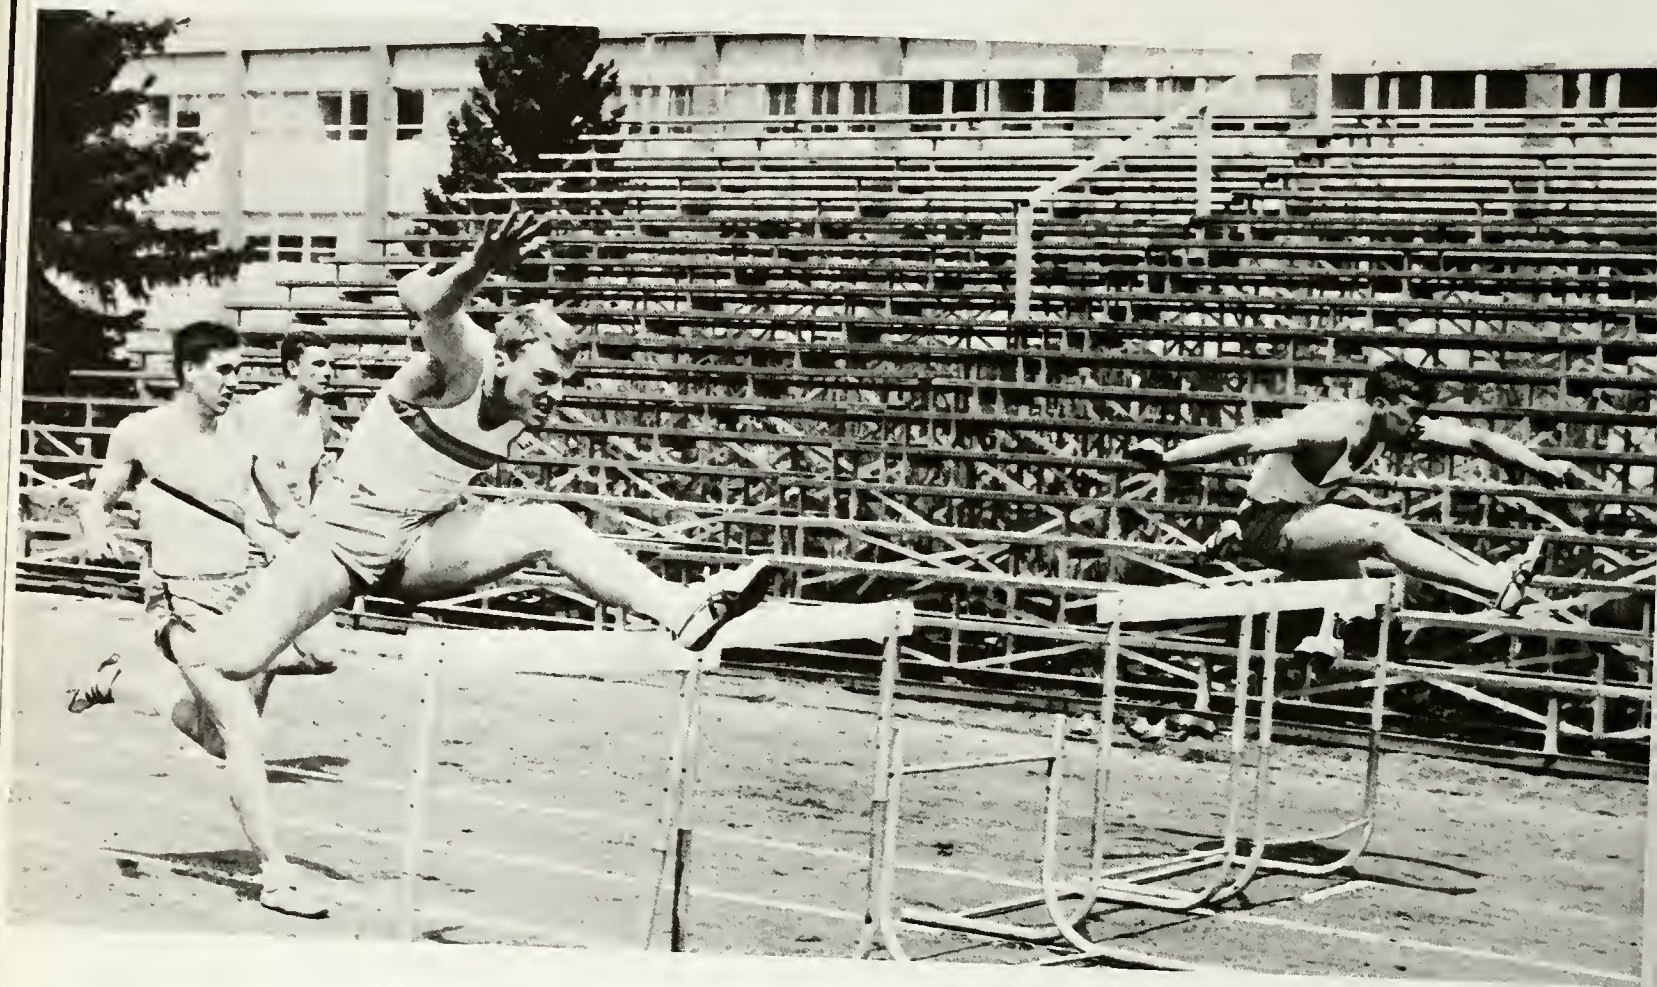

During the first year of any kind of competition of any kind in swimming, the Bobcat swim team participated in four meets. Although the Cats lost to Idaho State 49-39, Billings AAU 54-48, Washington State 52-45, and U of M, Dave Allen, a high school All-American, was undefeated in 1 and 3 meter diving. He was unable to practice in the small pool in the gym and had to practice on a trampoline. The team was coached by John O'Leary, a senior in physical education and zoology. The MSU athletic department has no plans for competition in swimming in the Big Sky conference until the new pool is completed in the field house — probably during the 69-70 school year.

Track

Coach Herry Stubblefield's trackmen ran practice meets against Nevada Southern and Weber State. As expected, the Cats showed some strength in field events and a definite lack of punch in track events.

'Oh, please don't let the pole break.'

A Bobcat out in front in the MSU indoor invitational.

Golf

With the first hint of spring, Coach Beck and his linksters head for one of Bozeman's two golf courses in anticipation of the coming competition with other Big Sky schools. Although Mr. Beck does not enjoy the perennial success with his golf team that he does with his ski team, he does manage to give opponents some real competition.

Tennis

While the Montana weather seems to bless the ski team, it does absolutely nothing for the tennis team. Mother nature often cancels outdoor practice indefinitely. When the team finally did get in some practice, they readied themselves for a tough Big Sky conference schedule. Harold Gaustad was named the new tennis coach this year. Gaustad, a graduate student, won seven varsity letters during his undergraduate days.

Dolphins

The MSU synchronized swimming team added two men to its membership this year. Up to this year the team had been made up of only females. The group practices nightly and then presents several performances of their routine at the end of winter quarter. Dolphins gives women students, who are athletically inclined a chance to perform in spite of the male oriented athletic department.

"Us? Go topless?"

"About one more night of this and I'm going out for football."

Water babies.

Rifle Team

Dick Saunders, Cathe Curnow, Pat Mikesell, Carol Kroetch, Dave Albert, Bruce Vadnais, Toni Rhein, Paul Albert, Jim Waldo, Phil Mead, Frank Pickett, SGM. J. Greenway, Dale Coburn, Roger Ward.

The MSU Rifle Team is probably the winningest team on campus. The team placed first at the Providence State College Invitational Tourney, the Bengal Trophy Match in Pocatello, and second at the Kansas State Turkey Shoot. The ROTC team was the 1967 National Champion and the varsity team was unofficially tied for the National Championship.

Paul Albert, Phil Mead and Cathe Curnow qualified for the Olympic tryouts to be held this summer.

"It would seem that freshman class presidents are put into a dilemma about coming up with new ideas which can be put into effect. It is hard to get support from the students in each respective class. College students today are not class oriented. They have associations which cross such superficial lines as chronological classes. This is manifested in the poor record of attendance at class meetings, excluding the first one which is an election meeting. Those who do support a given project (if it makes it past the planning stage) are almost always members of previous student committees and boards or are dorm officers. Most workable ideas seem to originate from pre-existing boards and committees — especially Traditions Board. Freshman class officers can do little for their class in organizing new programs and projects. However, we DO gain valuable insight into the workings of student government so that one day, in another capacity or position, we can serve our fellow students proficiently."

Studying

"The grasp of a concept is often gained in a moment of private study."

"Creativity, as expressed in original projects, is a functional goal of our education."

STUDYING IS:

a moment,
a place,
an idea,
an inspiration,
and YOU!

"The inquisitive student adds spice and vigor to classroom discussion."

Marie Kirscher, Sec.; Betty Vanatta, Womens Social Chrm.; Ron DeYoung, Vice Pres.; Allen Loudon, Tres.; Greg Smith, Mens Social Chrm.; Bob Quinn, President.

The Main project of the Sophomore class was in the sponsoring of two dances, the proceeds of which were given to Yellowstone Boy's Ranch. The first dance was held the night before the Bobcat-Grizzly football game. The Winter Quarter "Charity Brawl" was held on Jan. 19th — the night of the Bobcat-Grizzly basketball game. The proceeds of these two dances, which amounted to $500, was then donated to Yellowstone Boy's Ranch — a local, in-state ranch complex.

The other class officers were dependable and did much of the actual planning and work. They performed their roles actively and enthusiastically. Those who worked on the projects gained insight into the workings of student government and several worked their way up to higher, more influential positions.

Spring People

The snow fades
And new buds burst.

Junior Class Officers

Janet Sabo, Sec.; Sandy Coons, Womens Social Chrm.; Carl Prinzing, Vice Pres.; Bill Mosier, Mens Social Chrm.; Tom Carter, Tres.; Darryl Hess, President.

The class of 1969 sponsored a Registration Mixer at the beginning of Winter Quarter to raise money for the Spring Quarter "Barn Dance," or "Sawdust Stomp," as it has been called. The "Barn Dance" has become the major project of the Junior Class.

This year it was the aim of the Junior Class to make this "corrupted Jr.-Sr. Prom," into an even more popular annual dance. Three bands from around the state were hired, while decorations of sawdust, hay and corrals provided the Western atmosphere.

"Class officers form an aura of unity among the various factions of a class. Although there are no longer clear-cut class distinctions, the class officers can represent a large number of students on Student Senate. While other commissioners represent specific groups, (i.e. forensics), the class presidents do represent a greater mass of the students. In this manner, major, as well as minor factions, are duly represented."

Darryl Hess, Pres.

Senior Class Officers

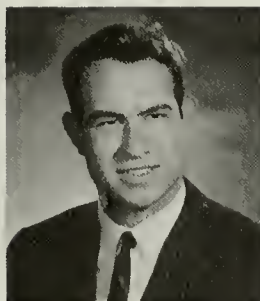

Mary Ann Bailey, Sec.; Jack Prather, Tres.; Gene VanDyken, Co-Social Chrmn.; Craig Madsen, Vice Pres.; Marilyn Fitzgerald, Co-Social Chrmn.; Gary Richards, President.

"This year's Senior Class sponsored a dance using the proceeds to finance the Senior Class Spring Picnic. The seniors made an indispensable contribution to the Student Senate as they held the President and Vice-President positions, a majority of the Senate Commissionerships, and were the chairmen of influential committees. Having talked to numerous senior cohorts, I am assured that in applying to other schools and companies, it is important that a student have participated in campus activities. Student government participation ranks high on their preferred lists. Such participation not only exposes one to new ideas but enables one to contribute to making his university aware of student needs and desires."

Graduation

Graduation — not the end of education. Throughout life we are constantly being educated. What we have learned here is more than a few isolated facts. We have been taught a working knowledge of tools — tools to continue inquiry, to continue investigation, to continue discovery. To those who have helped us to achieve or possess these tools we offer our sincere thanks. To our fellow students we wish success in their endeavors. It is with confidence and gratitude that we leave.

MONTANA STATE UNIVERSITY

The Montanan

TELEPHONE 587-3121
EXTENSION 337

Dear MSU:

Are two heads better than one? Most people thought so, but we wondered as we started out the year as co-editors. It still seemed as if we had just as many problems, headaches, and worries. We lived, slept, and ate with always the thought of the annual. Our second home became the room in the SUB marked Montanan with its banging pipes, ragged drapes, unpainted walls, overloaded garbage cans, tables crowded with layout sheets, contact sheets, shipping records, and typewriters; the bulletin board with its famous Ha! Ha! Korner and seldom looked at notices; and the pile of junk in the corner called the editors' desk. One may not believe such a room could exist; however, out of this mess the 1968 annual was born — or was it?

To help us with our "delivery" of the 1968 annual was a faithful and hardworking staff. In order to have an annual you must have pictures, you might say the photo staff under the wise leadership of our co-photo editors — Mike Hoffman, alias the "Hobbit" and Rob Clark, the bearded one, took an upper hand in this. The layout staff headed by Darrell Grossman played an important part in the process of putting out an annual. Good coverage of sports was done by Russ Alexander and the Office of Information.

Money is a necessary evil and with a production of an annual a great amount is needed, but our tightfisted business manager, Linda Halley, stopped us at every turn with an unyielding "No!" Deadlines are very important, but this comment went unobserved by Larry Weintz, our copy editor, who in spite of it all had a wonderful way with words. Beth Hines, Sue Janssen, Janet Sabo, and Vicki Peressini were four important section editors.

Many can be leaders but the following make up the hard core of an annual staff. These include — Howie Wilson, Mike Kacsmark, Vern Roberts, Loren Rowl, Marlis Urton, Keith Rousch, Paul Bulat, Jeff Gibbs, Emma Shook, Libby McClain, Laurel Janke, Mary Ann Evans, Lynda Shepherd, and Cindy McDonald.

On the less humorous side, we would like to express thanks to: Steve Hadnagy, Chris Schlechten, Duncan MacNab, Sally Bankovier, Paul Jesswein, AMC Photo, ASMSU, Student Union, and Artcraft Printers. A special thanks goes to Wheelwright Lithographing, especially Peggy Quist, who corrected our many errors, helped us make decisions, and gave a guiding hand during the year.

Editing is but a small part of putting out an annual and to all involved thanks for a memorable year.

Sincerely yours,

Barbara Flint
